OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

To the Class of '54:
The members of the graduating class of 1954 have every reason to be proud of the place it has held in the development of a fine little university.

This class has been the core of the student body through four years of unparalleled transition. It has experienced the complete reorganization of curriculum, faculty and staff of the University. It has seen and enhanced the rehabilitation of the campus, its buildings and equipment. It has experienced all the plans and programs leading to full accreditation by the North Central Association. It has given its support to the beginnings of a Development Program that when completed will make this University one of the best in the nation.

You have every reason to be proud of your four years on the campus. We wish you all that sense of deep satisfaction as you graduate and become alumni of O.N.U.

F. Bringle McIntosh

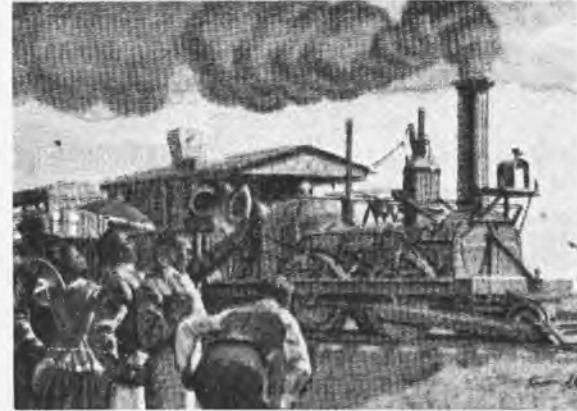

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Heading the vast program for revamping, building up and endowing the university is its sixth president, Dr. F. Bringle McIntosh. Since assuming his duties five years ago this June, he has directed the overall renovation of the physical plant of all four colleges, the construction of a women's dormitory, and the moving of the library and engineering college into larger and better quarters, and has been one of the chief factors behind the nation-wide endowment drive.

THE UNIVERSITY REFLECTS AS ADA CELEBRATES 100 YEARS OF PROGRESS

Though conventional yearbook tradition would have it that a school and college annual should maintain a central thought or theme throughout, the 1954 Northern is departing from that unwritten law this year. We do have an idea around which we would like to have moulded our book, but we feel that a retrospect in each phase of our college activity would not be in keeping with the progressive trend of the university. However, here the Northern would like to pause and offer its belated congratulations to the community of Ada, which last August celebrated one hundred years of progress and growth.

Time and time again from the beginnings of the small Northwestern Ohio Normal School in 1871 through its embryo Ohio Normal University days to the present well defined and recognized university it has been shown that the existence of the college and the community were interdependent. Ada might not be the thriving town which it is today had the university floundered during its darker days. It was the townspeople of Ada who first invited and encouraged the founder, H. S. Lehr, to begin the normal school here eighty-three years ago. With an ever brighter future ahead of both of them, all now look forward to the celebration of Ohio Northern's centennial.

Dedication

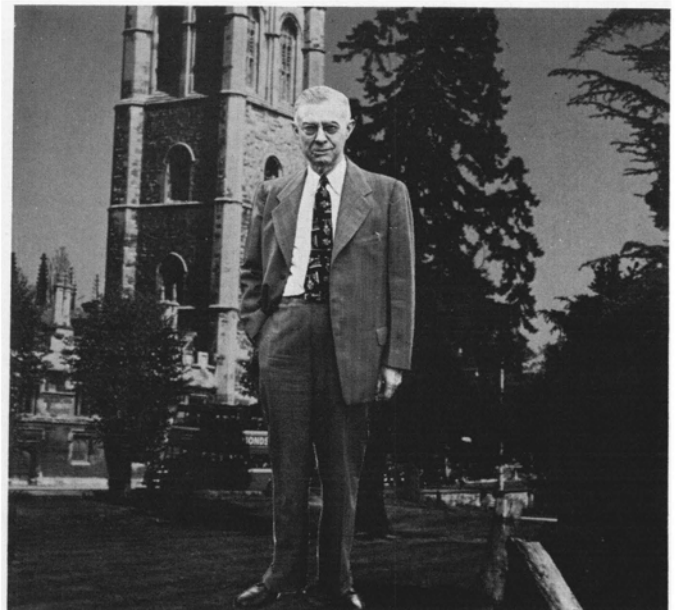

That Ohio Northern has achieved her rightful place in the educational world despite the limited resources of her physical plant is a tribute more than anything else to the high caliber of her instructors. It is with a sense of profound thanks that we dedicate this, the forty-fourth edition of the Northern, to Wilfred Ellsworth Binkley, Professor of History and Political Science, who truly represents this ideal. Indeed, few institutions of our size are fortunate enough to have a man of his stature. In 1952 Columbia University cited Dr. Binkley as one of the six outstanding professors of political science in the country, and his return by request of Oxford University to his visiting professorship there last year bears witness that his fame is more than national. A full-time teaching position and, for the past two years, the top executive position in the municipality of Ada has not prevented him from participating and traveling actively in political and social science activities, both state and national. Author of many articles, he is now working on his sixth book. His previous works include "Problems in American Government" (1926), "Powers of the President" (1937), "President and Congress" (1943), and "American Political Parties" (1949). "A Grammar of American Politics," standard political science text used in many colleges, recently went into its second edition last year. "American Political Parties" has been translated into German and Spanish editions, and a Russian translation has even found its way behind the Iron Curtain. Dr. Binkley received the highest acknowledgment of his renown last April 10 when President Dwight D. Eisenhower appointed him as one of the dozen members of the National Historical Publications commission, only one other professor being named to this government body.

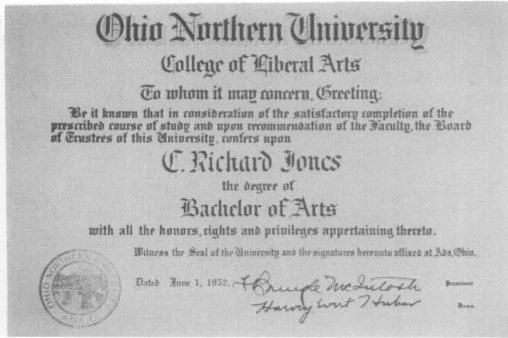

Dr. Ralph Harshman, Vice President and Dean of Graduate School at Bowling Green State University, giving Dr. Binkley an honorary Doctorate in Public Administration at Bowling Green's spring commencement in May 1953.

With picturesque Magdalen tower in the background, Dr. Binkley is shown on the Oxford university campus in the summer of 1950.

OHIO NORTHERN OF TOMORROW ...

In February the Development Board of the university and the National Alumni Association inaugurated the multi-million dollar development program for Ohio Northern in the local area. The long-range development program, started a year ago, is designed to give the university additional buildings and endowment. The first stage of the overall program calls for the erection of a Student Union, another girl's dormitory, a science building, and modernization of Lehr auditorium. By special action of the Board of Trustees and voluntary assessment by the student body voted at the first of the year, $250,000 of the first $2,500,000 received will be earmarked for the erection of a new Student Union. Eventual plans for development of the university call for the building of an entirely new campus west of the present site, on acreage now owned by the trustees. In the scale drawing on these pages an attempt is made to show the tentative plot plan with the present university buildings and the proposed or suggested sites of eventual structures to be built as the development program materializes.

The suggested plan of expansion of the university calls for an extension of the present University and Lehr avenues westward to form a semicircular approach to the new campus. Buildings will then be erected within this semi-circle and north and south of it, with further extension to the northwest. The following key to the present, tentative and suggested buildings will give an overall conception of the scope of the Development Program.

(A) is the present main campus, facing eastward on South Main Street, including Dukes (1903), Lehr (1914) and Brown (1901) Memorials; Hill building (1879), the power plant (1922) and the Law building (1923). To the west of this site (B) is Presser hall (1929) and the Student Center, which was the home of S. M. Johnson, founder of Ada (1875). Within the next year a temporary Student Union is to be built west of the present Center. On South Union Street is Taft gymnasium (1929) and the Girl's Dormitory (1949).

Northeast of the present Girl's Dormitory, facing south on West Lehr, will be erected the next dormitory to accommodate women students (1). In the general area west of Taft gym will be erected the new quarter-million dollar Student Union (2), next in the program. Tentatively, west of the Union will be the Science Building (3), which, together with the modernization of Lehr auditorium, will complete the initial stage of the program.

South of Taft gym and the Union will be a quadrangle arrangement of girl's dormitories (4) while further south along or west of South Union Street will be men's dormitories (5). A semicircular "Fraternity row" (6) could be a possible site for new fraternity chapter houses, following the plan of state universities. Further college buildings for the various colleges will possibly be erected southwest (7, 8) of the present campus. An open-air theatre (9) and structures for music and theatre arts will be embraced in the program. Faculty housing (10) and housing for married students (11) will face either side of the extension of West University avenue past the semicircle. A football field with running track with a stadium on each side (12) will be the farthest extension of university development on the proposed site, with practice fields (13) and a Field house (14) with intramural fields and dressing facilities for non-varsity competition completing the plan.

Administration

Now entering his sixth year at Ohio Northern, four of them as Dean of the University, Dr. Warren L. Hickman represents the new administrative policy noticeable all over the campus. Coming to Northern with a wartime background as head of Eisenhower's file section in SHAEP, and with graduate work at Geneva, he has been a chief impetus to the development program.

ADMINISTRATION WORKS FOR FACULTY AND STUDENTS

Mr. C. E. Wintringham was this year appointed to the newly-designated post of Vice President of the University. As the Director of Alumni and Public Relations, and editor of the quarterly alumni magazine, he has acted as the coordinator between alumni groups and the college administration. Under his direction a national network of regional and local alumni organizations have been set up, as well as representing the university in the field in its endowment and building drives.

Administration

As Treasurer and Business Manager of the university, Mr. Kenneth F. Martin has directed the outlay of appropriations in the half-million dollar re-vamping and building program during the past two years. Under his jurisdiction the well-staffed maintenance department has kept the physical plant of the university in running order and is constantly making additions to the assets of all of the colleges.

A college or university administration, like that of a governmental system or a military organization, is set up in a pyramidal pattern. At the top is the president, with the Dean of the University below him, under whom are the Deans of the four undergraduate colleges. The Vice President, Business Manager and Registrar each coordinate their efforts in their particular fields: public and alumni relations, finance and records. The deans of men, women and freshmen men handle the problems immediately associated with student conduct and problems. Other members of the administrative body are the Director of Admissions and the head of the university library.

Dr. James A. Woofter and Mrs. A. F. Seitz direct the extensive work of the office of the registrar. Here the records of every student are kept in transcript with all credit work being closely tabulated towards meeting graduation requirements.

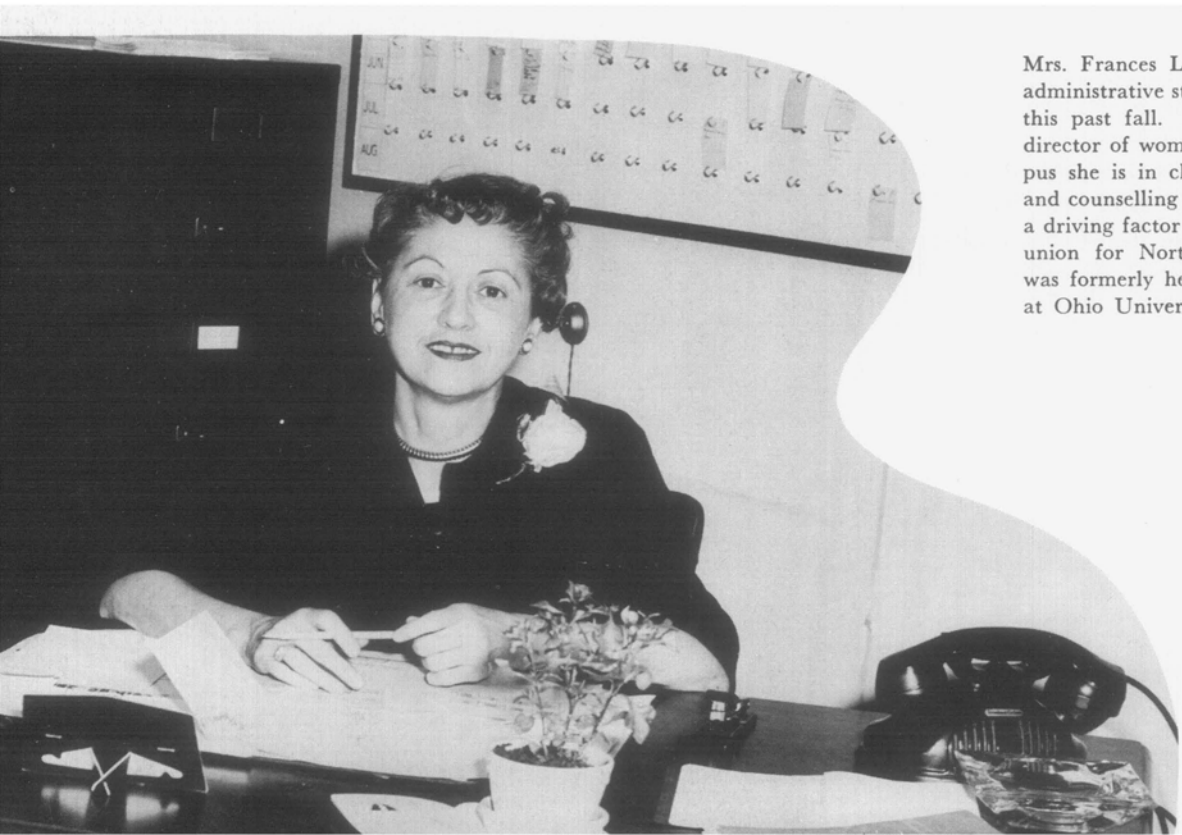

Administration

The members of the administration closest to the student are the deans. They have a large share in contributing to the happiness or unhappiness of a student's college career. Deans Frances Burdette and Fred Clark are the coordinating elements between students and their problems. Their vivid interest in the past in the success of such purely student ventures as May Day, the functions of the Student Council, Interfraternity Council and Panhellenic Council and the projected Student Union have demonstrated that they well understand the problems of Northern.

Mr. Fred R. Clark has served as Dean of Men at Ohio Northern since 1951. He also is the advisor to the Interfraternity Council and is an administrative member of the Student Union Committee. Dean Clark had a similar position as Dean of Students at Upper Iowa University before coming to Northern.

THE DEANS: COORDINATORS

Mrs. Frances L. Burdette joined the administrative staff as Dean of Women this past fall. Besides her duties as director of women's activities on campus she is in charge of the guidance and counselling program and has been a driving factor in achieving a student union for Northern. Mrs. Burdette was formerly head resident counsellor at Ohio University.

COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS

16 DEPARTMENTS;

41 TEACHERS

This year found the George Franklin and Sarah Getty College of Liberal Arts in its best state in forty years. Additions to faculty, staff, curriculum and classrooms and laboratories have made it one of the best equipped of the university colleges besides having the largest number of students enrolled. As it represents the oldest college on the campus its traditions and programs are many.

The college is divided into language, literature and arts; natural sciences; social sciences and teacher training divisions. Also correlated within its jurisdiction is the recently added Management Institute and Associate of Arts program, providing for two year certificate courses. The curricula is so formed to meet as far as is possible the needs, interests and abilities of the individual student.

Marion E. Tinsler, Dean of the College of Liberal Arts.

Lehr Memorial, university administration building and center of the College of Liberal Arts.

ART

The Art department is under the direction of Mrs. Hazel Younkman, who holds classes in the Arts Annex. Elementary and secondary education students frequently take courses offered within this department to supplement their teaching experience in grade and high schools. The new associate of arts program of the university lays especial emphasis on a two year course with commercial art as a major field of study.

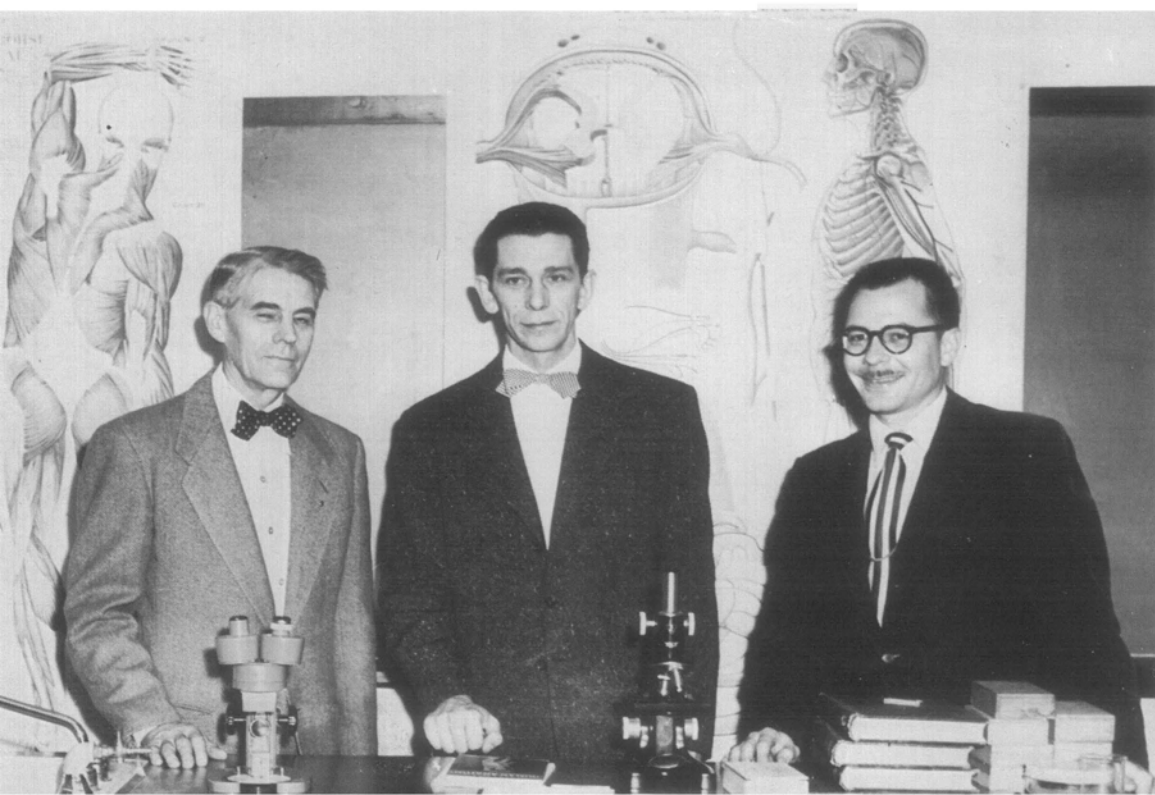

Mrs. Hazel Younkman, Instructor in Public School Art.

BIOLOGY

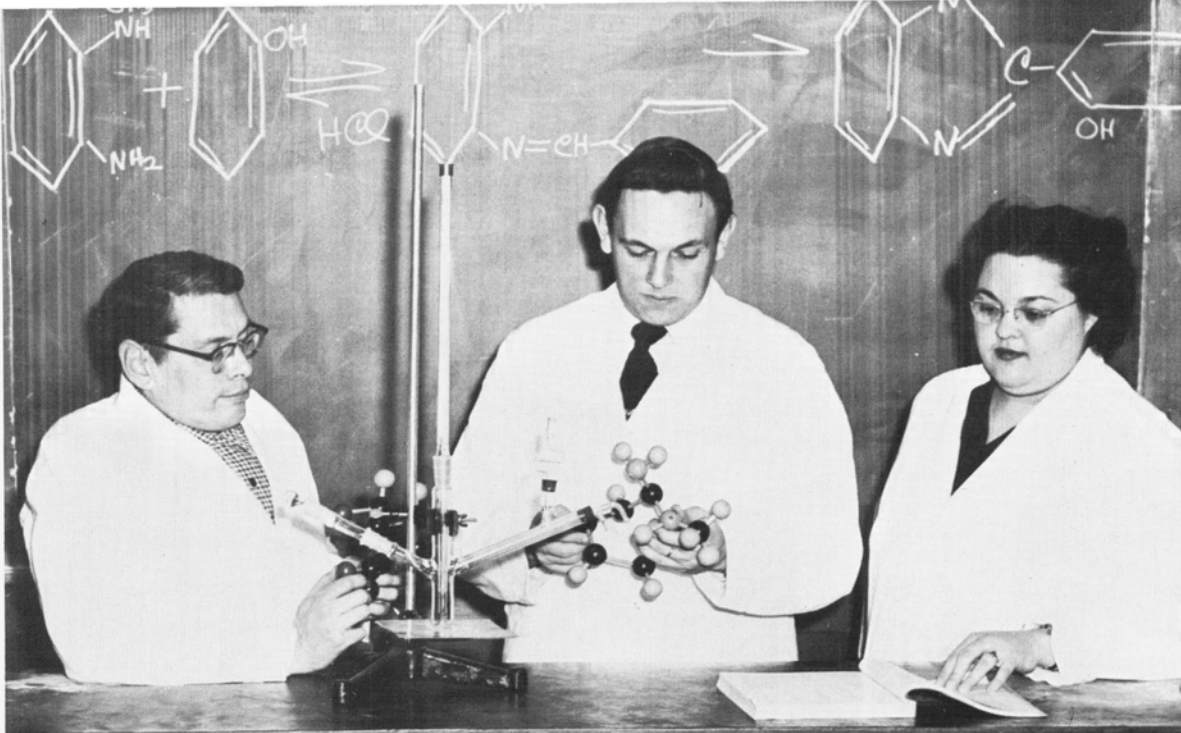

With new laboratories and classrooms on the second floor of Hill Science building the Biology department has come into its own this year. Mr. Andrew Stauffer is chairman with Mr. Robert Bowden and Mr. Hal Yingling as assistants in the department. Mr. Bowden conducts classes in the new physiology lab in Hill for advanced chemistry, biology and laboratory technique students as well as for pharmacy students. Ohio Northern's biology department claims one of the finest flora and fauna collections in the east due to the efforts of the late Dean Harvey Huber, forty years head of the department.

BIOLOGY DEPARTMENT FACULTY: Mr. Andrew Stauffer, Mr. Robert Bowden, Mr. Hal Yingling

CHEMISTRY DEPARTMENT FACULTY: Mr. Robert Bradley, Robert Van Atta, Mrs. Wilma Bradley.

CHEMISTRY

The Chemistry department functions as a part of the college of liberal arts, though the majority of its students, as well as its laboratories, are in the Pharmacy College. Dr. Robert Van Atta serves as head of the department and on the staff are Mr. Robert Bradley and Mrs. Wilma Bradley. Chemistry majors are becoming more numerous on the campus, and with pharmacy and engineering students in the basic classes chemistry has evolved into a leading part of the university departmental organization.

Miss Margaret Hughes, Instructor in Business Education, demonstrates the new stenograph machine to Mrs. Harriet Ritz.

ECONOMICS & BUSINESS

The Departments of Economics and Business Administration are now housed with adequate facilities in Brown building, along with the Management Institute. Mr. Gerald Smith and Mrs. Harriet Ritz teach courses in economics, while the department is headed by Mr. Rudolph Pinola, who joined the faculty in February. Mrs. Ritz heads the Department of Business Administration assisted by Miss Margaret Hughes. Required courses in economics for pharmacy students as well as the many arts students who are business or secretarial majors make this an important and expanding department.

Mr. Gerald E. Smith, Instructor in Economics, and Mrs. Harriet Ritz, Associate Professor of Business Education.

EDUCATION FACULTY:
Mr. Clinton C. Roberson and
Dr. Katie Lou Hanson.

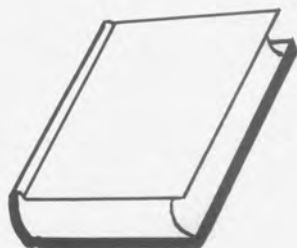

EDUCATION

Since nearly one third of all liberal arts students are in the education department, and since most of the university co-eds are under elementary or secondary education training plans, this department becomes one of the most important within the arts college. Mr. C. C. Roberson serves as the Director of Teacher Education and Dr. Katie Lou Hanson is in charge of elementary education. Practice teaching is carried out in the Ada public school system and in nearby schools.

ENGLISH

Three new instructors in freshman English were added to Ohio Northern's English department this year: Miss Frances Bennett, Mr. John Taylor, and Mr. William Allman. Dr. Joseph Spring, the head of the department, and Professor Robert Price teach advanced courses in literature. Three quarters of English Composition are required of all students of the university in the freshman year.

ENGLISH FACULTY: Sitting: Miss Frances Bennett; Dr. Joseph E. Spring; Mr. John R. Taylor. Standing: Mr. Robert Price; Mr. William Allman.

FOREIGN LANGUAGES
FACULTY: Miss Louise
Fauset and Dr. Matthias
Schmitz.

HISTORY AND POLITI-CAL SCIENCE FACUL-
TY: Dr. Wilfred E. Binkley,
Dr. Robert Hilliard, Dr.
Warren Hickman, Mr.
Harold Lieberman.

FOREIGN LANGUAGES

The Department of Foreign Languages has been expanded in recent years to include the teaching of German, Spanish, French and Latin. An occasional course in Italian is offered to music majors. Dr. Matthias Schmitz and Miss Louise Fauset have in two years built up the department so that it now shares most of the Arts Annex on the south end of the campus. In connection with Spanish and German classes various field trips and excursions are organized throughout the year.

HISTORY AND POLITICAL SCIENCE

Fortunate in having as its distinguished head a nationally known personality in its field, the Department of History and Political Science maintains a paramount place in the liberal arts college. Dr. Wilfred Binkley conducts the advanced courses in political theories, comparative government and our national governmental system. Mr. Harold Lieberman holds the classes in freshman social science core and geography, while Dr. Robert Hilliard and Dean Warren Hickman instruct the courses in English, American, Recent European and Ancient History. Courses in Far Eastern, Latin American and Diplomatic History are offered in alternate years.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS FAC-ULTY: Mr. D. R. Lowman and Mr. Richard Kain.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS

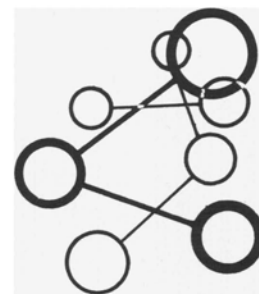

The Department of Industrial Arts offers courses for all students in the university and especially for those interested in becoming teachers in industrial subjects in public schools. The departmental workshops and classrooms in the basement of Brown were revamped during the year to better increase the facilities for instruction. Head of the department is Mr. D. R. Lowman, assisted by Mr. Richard Kain.

MATHEMATICS

Mathematics is taught at Ohio Northern to prepare preprofessional students in engineering and pharmacy as well as other graduate work, and as basic curricula for liberal arts students in education and the various arts and sciences. Mathematics majors and minors, of whom there are a few within the arts college, carry on advanced study under Mr. Hernando Godderz, chairman of the department, and Mr. Hugh Harp.

MATHEMATICS FACUL-TY: Mr. Hernando Godderz and Mr. Hugh Harp.

PHYSICS FACULTY: Mr. A. A. Benedict and Mr. Ernest Abele.

PHYSICS

This year the physics department, together with the departments of biology and mathematics, found a new home in the revamped Hill Science building. Complete with equipment in the mechanics of light, heat, sound and electronics the laboratories and classrooms present an excellent background for experimental and theory work. Chairman is Mr. A. A. Benedict, who with Mr. Ernest Abele directs the work necessary to all engineering and pharmacy students as well as many liberal arts people.

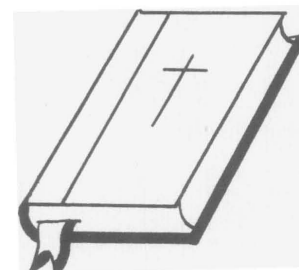

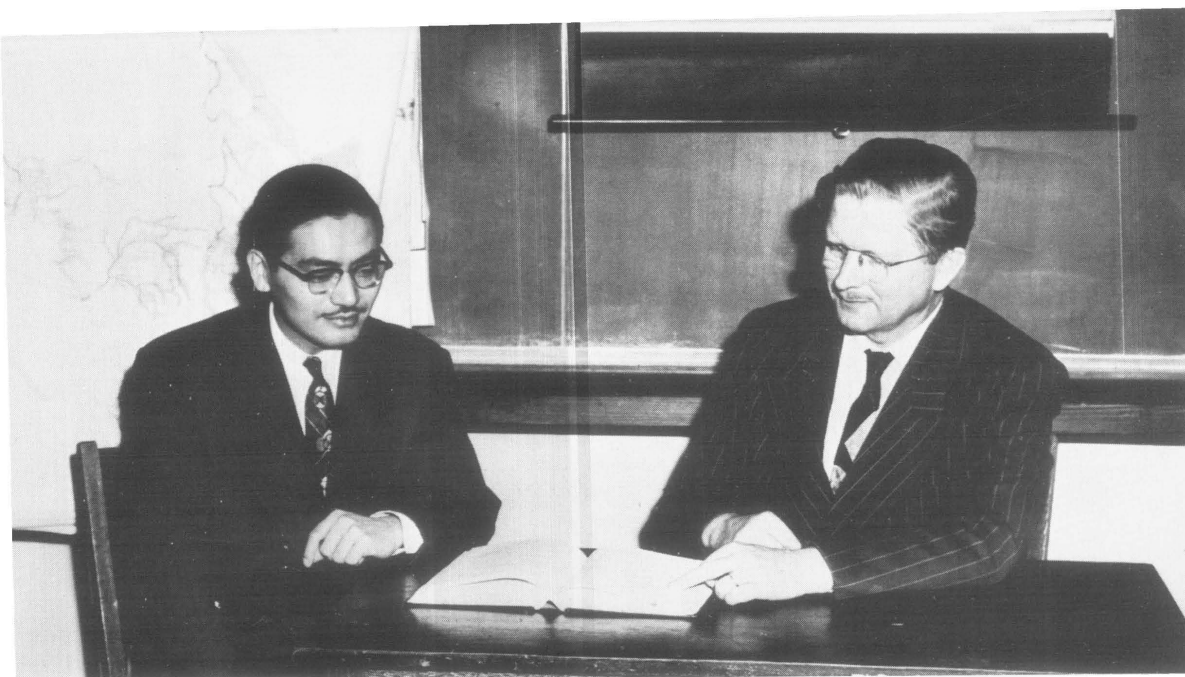

MUSIC

Ohio Northern's widely known music department, dating back to the courses taught by the early famous music educator Theodore Presser here in the 1870's, maintains a variety of activities within its scope. The university chorus-choir, band, orchestra and glee club are all coordinated by the department. The series of campus concerts and musical appearances throughout the year, as well as the annual eastern choir trip, make the campus a favorite meeting place for state and regional musical groups every year. Mr. Karl Roeder, Mr. Robert Weidner and Mr. Alfred Mudrich comprise the music department staff.

MUSIC FACULTY: Mr. Karl Roeder, Mr. Robert Weidner, Mr. Alfred Mudrich.

PHILOSOPHY AND RELIGION FACIULTY: Dr. Ha Tai Kim and Dean Marion Tinsler.

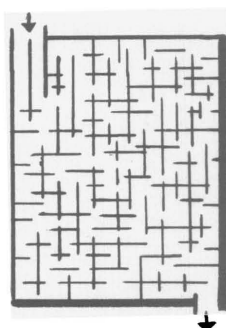

PHILOSOPHY AND RELIGION

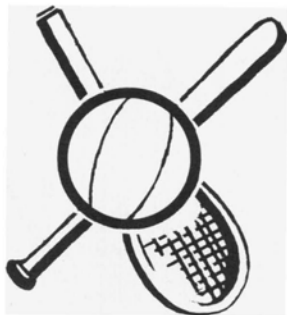

Each student at Ohio Northern is required to take nine hours of religion or philosophy during his freshman year; thus the department becomes as basic as has the department of English through the years. As the university has always been a preparatory training center for pre-theological students its scope is in an advanced curriculum. Coming to Ohio Northern as the head of this department this year was Dr. Ha Tai Kim, a native of Korea. He is assisted by Dean Marion Tinsler.

PSYCHOLOGY AND SOCIOLOGY

Psychology and Sociology, serving as they are one of the basic requirements in liberal arts education as well as important supplementary curricula for the professional students, maintains an active department headed by Dr. David Markle, who is assisted by Mr. Karl Zucker. A number of sociology majors graduate each year, most of them entering graduate work in the ministry. Various field trips are organized throughout the year, visiting such places as the Toledo state hospital, Mansfield reformatory and similar institutions.

PSYCHOLOGY AND SOCIOLOGY FACULTY: Mr. Karl B. Zucker and Dr. David Markle.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION FACULTY:
Seated: Mrs. Mozelle Pickering. Standing: Mr. Barney Poole, Mr. Marvin English and Mr. Clyde Lamb.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

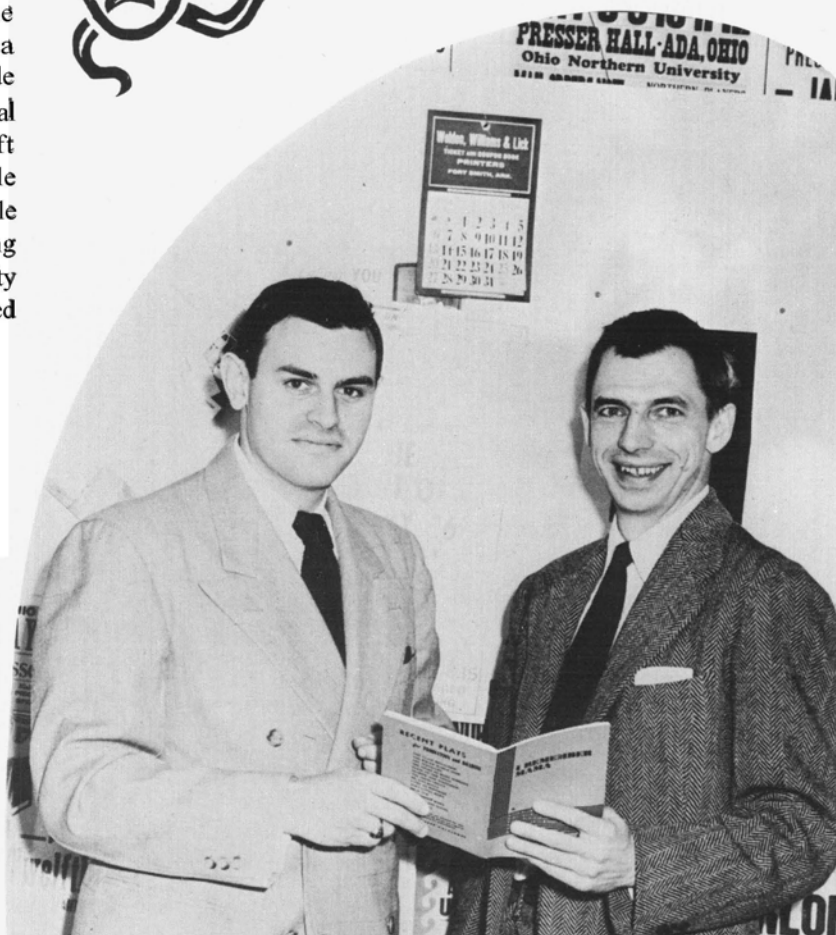

Physical Education is required of every student during his first two years at Northern, and is supplemented by the excellent intramural program offered to all, as well as a complete schedule of varsity competition. Mr. Clyde Lamb, as head of the Department of Health and Physical Education, coordinates the activities centered in Taft gym, assisted by Mr. Marvin English. Mr. Barney Poole heads the intramural department and Mrs. Mozelle Pickering is instructor in women's physical education. Long a training center for physical education teachers, some fifty coaching majors, including a few co-eds, were enrolled last year.

SPEECH AND THEATRE ARTS

Speech and Theatre Arts, although within the Department of English, are constantly broadening their scope throughout the whole university. After a one-year dormant period dramatics again achieved prominence this past year under the direction of Mr. William Allman. New courses in theatre arts and play production were added to the curriculum and the work of the Northern Players was co-ordinated with it. Mr. J. Buckminster Ranney instructs courses in speech, radio workshop and debate and is in charge of Ohio Northern's embryo radio station in Presser Hall, WONU.

SPEECH AND THEATRE ARTS FACULTY:
Mr. William Allman and Mr. J. B. Ranney.

COLLEGE OF LAW

The College of Law has been a part of the university for nearly seventy years, dating its beginnings as a department established in Ohio Normal University in 1885. Many of the most prominent lawyers in the Buckeye state and throughout the nation are among its alumni, one governor of Ohio and several members of the United States Senate and House of Representatives having at times been counted among these.

Its graduates have been successful beyond the average as candidates for admission to the bar. The college holds membership and is approved by the League of Ohio Law Schools and the American Bar Association.

The college offers a three year course leading to a Bachelor of Laws degree, and though its students for the most part represent other colleges in preliminary arts education the pre-legal program of the college of liberal arts is closely correlated with that of the law school.

Warren G. Harding Memorial, home of the college of law, was erected and dedicated in 1923.

Claude W. Pettit, Dean of the College of Law and for thirty years professor in the college.

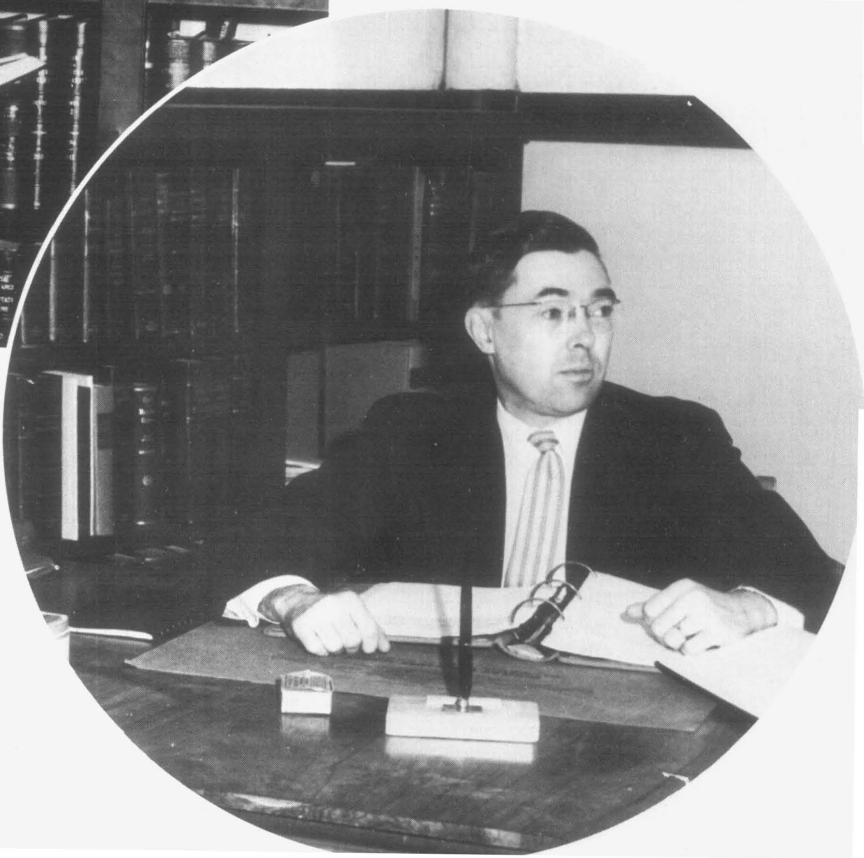

Prominent have been the graduates of Ohio Northern's College of Law. Not only have its some 2500 barristers gone out into the successful practice of their profession, but many of them have entered politics and government and achieved distinction in their chosen fields. Most recent of these to achieve prominence in administrative fields has been Anthony J. Celebreeze, class of '36, who recently was elevated to mayor of Ohio's largest city, Cleveland. Perhaps the most outstanding graduate was Frank B. Willis, a governor of Ohio and later member of Congress. Five law grads have sat in the upper house at one time or another, both of the senators from Ohio and one from Indiana and one from Kentucky all being members of the United States Senate in 1921. One of the first law school graduates in 1887, Kirtland I. Perty, later became Senator from Utah.

Vincent C. Immel, Assistant Professor of Law.

Mr. E. Vergon Smith, Assistant Professor of Law.

Mr. Eugene N. Hanson, Assistant Professor of Law.

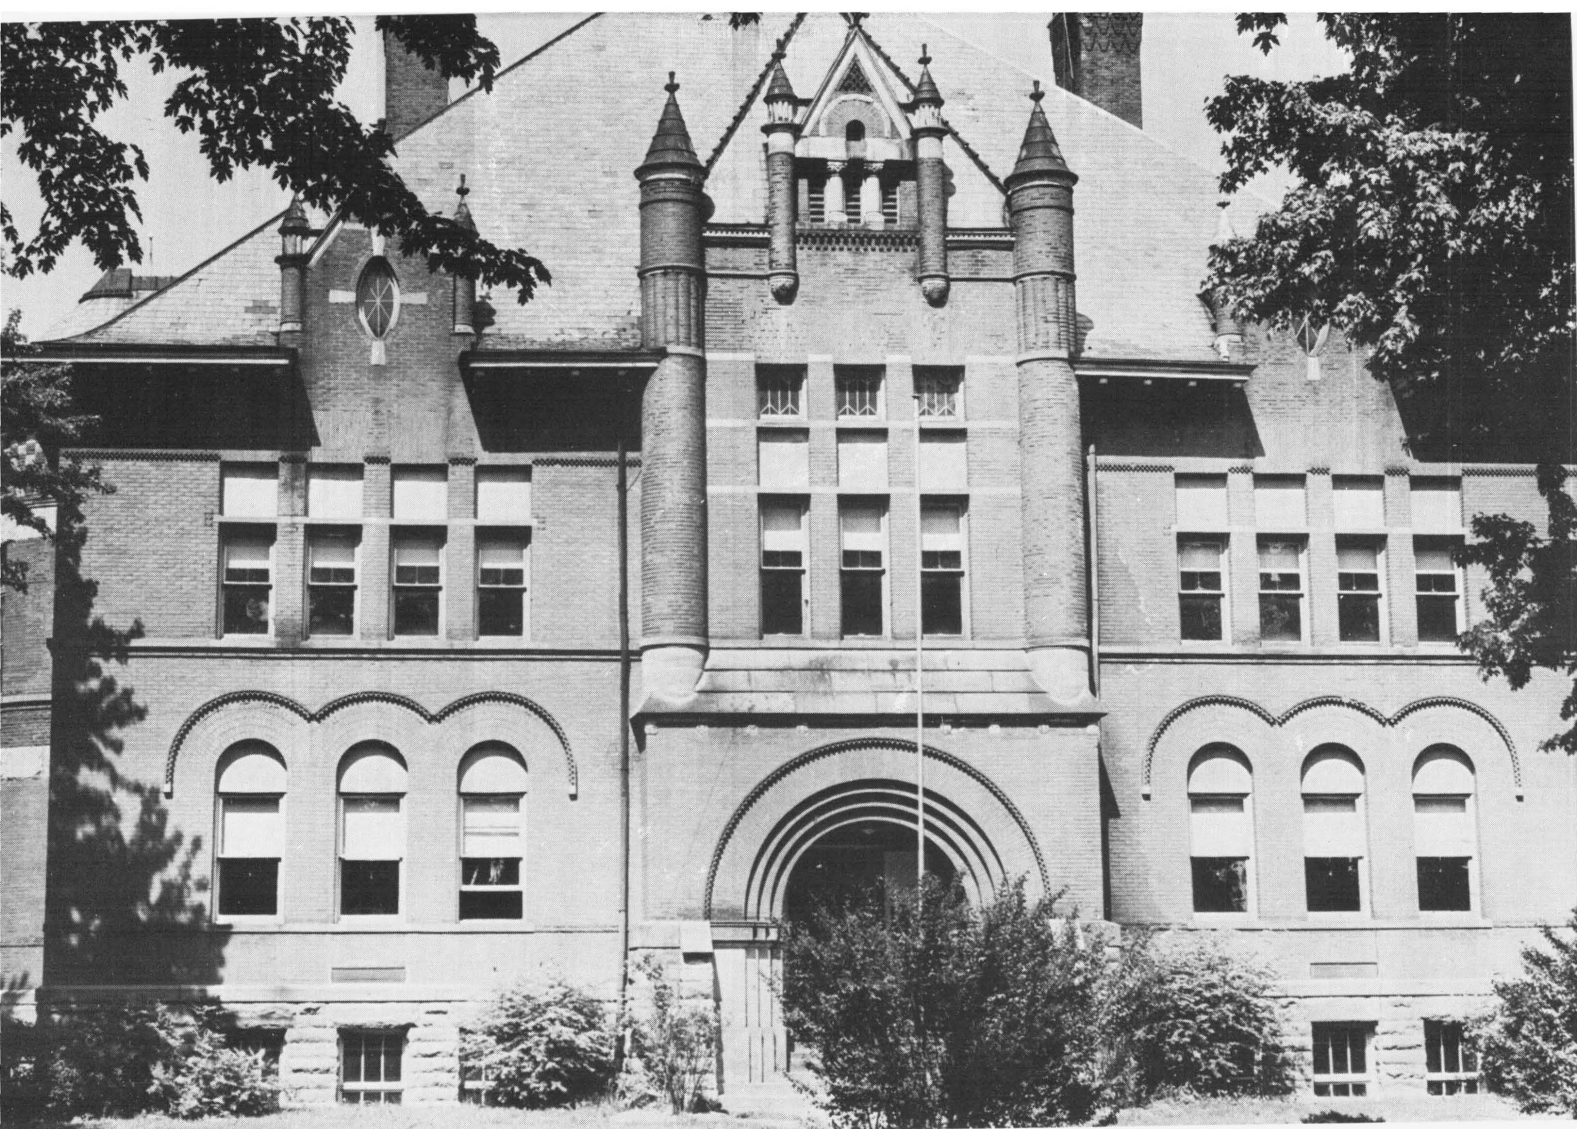

LAW

The aim of the founders of Ohio Northern's College of Law was to afford an opportunity to students of limited means to obtain collegiate training in jurisprudence, and through connection with the university to further this by offering a complete pre-legal background indispensable to successful study and practice. This principle has been continued through the ensuing years and today the College of Law is a representative and respected institution in its field.

Moot court, where freshmen barristers appear before an Appellate court of upperclassmen, is an important occasion for first year law students.

The library of the college of law, which has some 10,000 volumes alone, was recently endowed with a $50,000 gift which will be used for the Jay P. Taggart Memorial Law Library.

COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING

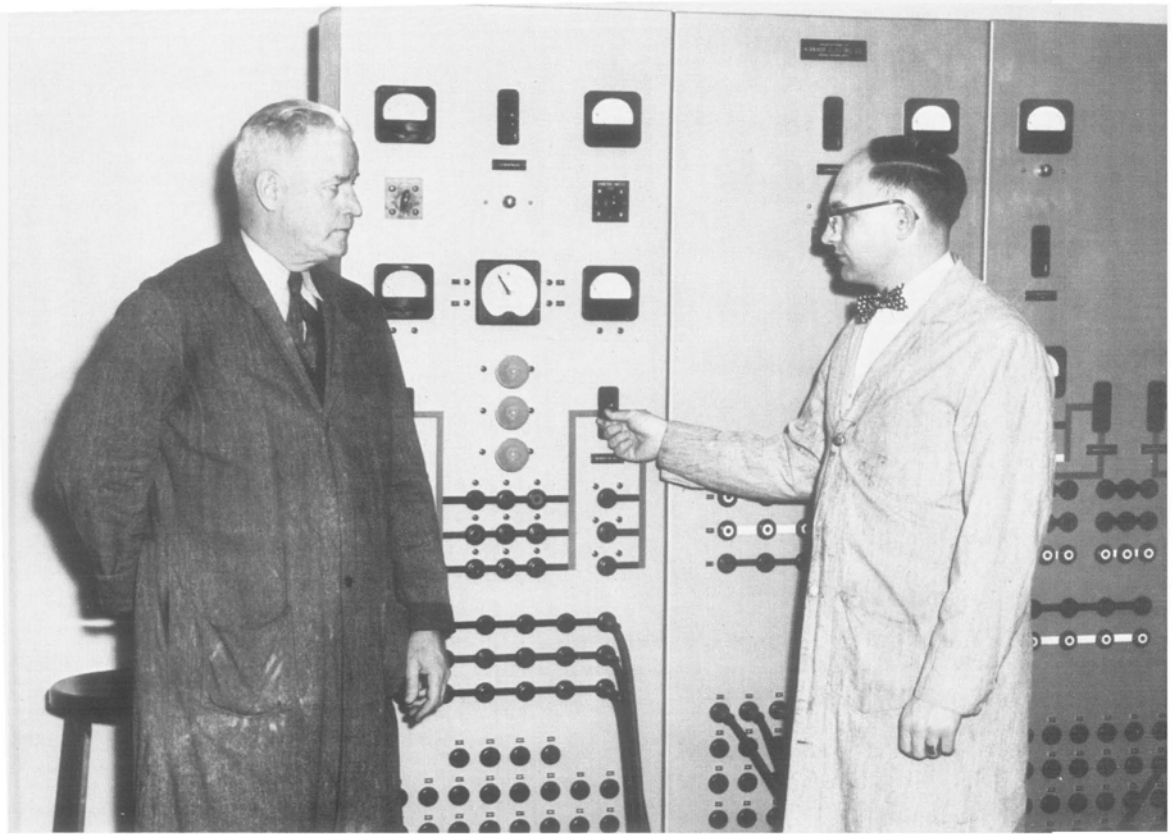

Ohio Northern's Engineering college, which has produced thousands of practicing and consulting engineers in many fields, is now housed in a newly acquired building apart from the main campus. This three story, sixteen-room brick structure contains all engineering class rooms and some twenty design and drafting rooms and various laboratories.

Mr. Lawrence H. Archer,
Dean of the College of Engineering.

ELECTRICAL FACULTY:
Mr. D. W. Davis and Mr.
James Klingenberg.

The College of Engineering is a member of the American Society for Engineering Education and the national professional organizations of civil, electrical and mechanical engineering have approved it for chapters of its student branch groups. The Ohio Society of Professional Engineers has similarly given its support for the establishment of a student chapter.

ELECTRICALS, MECHANICALS AND CIVILS

ENGINEERING COLLEGE

APPROACHES 75TH ANNIVERSARY

Ohio Northern's founder, Henry S. Lehr, was a man of foresight in that he included a course in surveying in the first term of his normal school in the early 1870s. While many larger eastern universities still lacked practical instruction in the science of engineering, the department of civil engineering was organized in 1880. When the demand for trained engineers increased, this department was reorganized into the College of Engineering, and mechanical and electrical departments were added. At one time courses in chemical engineering were offered and during the war an aeronautical department conducted in cooperation with the Air Force was functioning. The college has always been an important one at Northern, and though the post-veteran era has reduced its enrollment to much lower than at times before, its standards and equipment have been greatly improved. The move from Hill building to the new home on the north campus in the summer of 1952 was a milestone in the history of the development of the engineering school, which looks forward to celebrating its diamond jubilee next year.

COLLEGE OF PHARMACY

The College of Pharmacy, founded in 1884, was the second pharmacy school in Ohio and one of the first ten in the United States. It had its beginning in the department of science and the short-lived school of medicine of the old Normal School that year. After the first registration and licensing laws were passed in the state the demand for trained and qualified pharmacists became such that the department evolved eventually into the largest single college of the university. For the past several years the Pharmacy College has claimed better than one quarter of the university enrollment.

TRAINING FOR THE PROFESSIONAL STUDENT

Dr. Albert C. Smith, Dean of the Pharmacy College.

Dr. Bernard Levy, associate professor of pharmacology. Senior pharmics learn the various drugs and their application in both class and laboratory sessions.

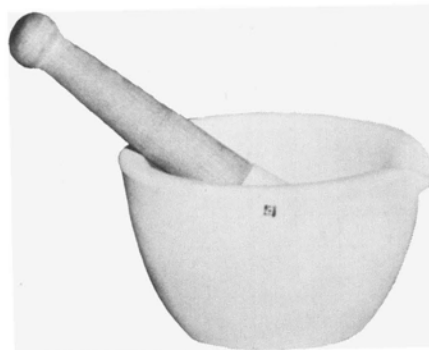

PHARMACY

Ohio Northern's College of Pharmacy is a member of the American Association of Colleges of Pharmacy and is accredited by the Council on Pharmaceutical Education of the American Pharmaceutical Association. Graduates of the college have been highly successful in the Ohio pharmacy board examinations as well as those of other states. The curricula are designed to train the students for the practice of retail pharmacy and to qualify them to enter the fields of many related sciences.

Dr. Anna Koeffler, Professor of Pharmacognosy.

PHARMACY

Harmony between academic training in the school of pharmacy and related student activities is evidenced in the programs of the student chapters of the American Pharmaceutical Association and the American Chemical Society, as in the annual pharmacy open house conducted in cooperation with the regional druggists' association. Field trips for upperclassmen to the manufacturing laboratories of the three main drug companies in the tri-state area are conducted each year with enthusiasm.

Mr. Mattys Jongward, Associate Professor of Pharmacy.

Senior Pharmics in dispensing laboratory.

ARTS AND SCIENCES

Brown Building, reconstructed this year into offices and classrooms for the Department of Business Administration and the Management Institute.

Possibly the greatest boon to the college of liberal arts since its reorganization some forty years ago was the relocation and equipping of the many various departments, as well as the addition to faculty and curriculum, during the past year. The science department, moved to Hill building the year before, was established with the completion of the new physics, biology and physiology laboratories. The moving of the entire business administration department to Brown from the third floor of Lehr and the expanding of the administrative facilities there also characterized the progress of the arts college.

MANAGEMENT INSTITUTE

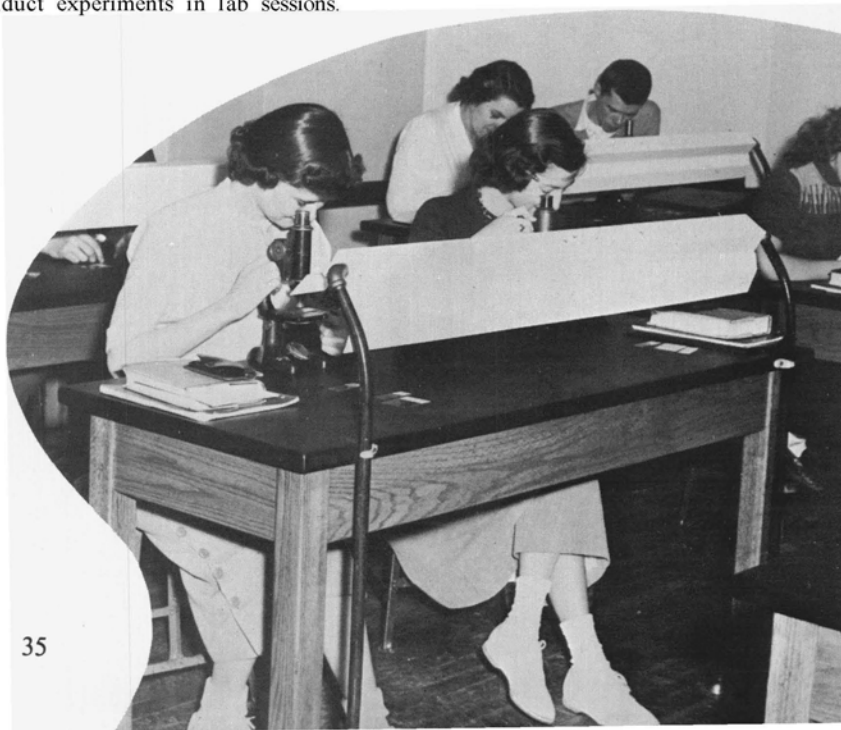

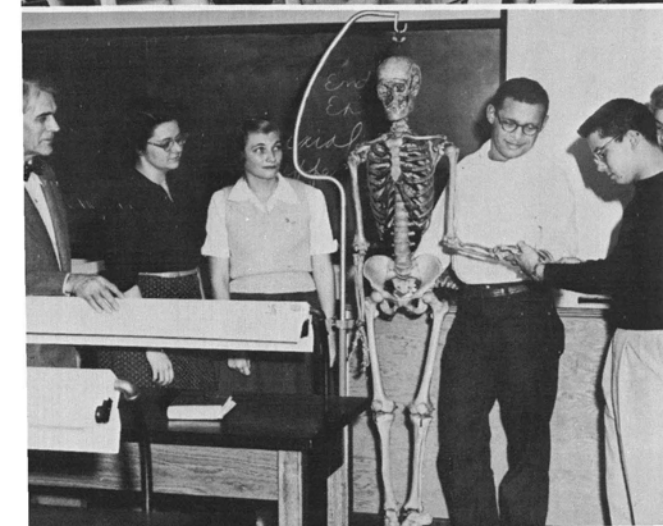

Started almost two years ago, the Management Institute of Ohio Northern has made available to the surrounding industries within the Lima-Kenton-Findlay area a training center where their supervisory personnel may receive basic instruction in management and labor problems. Following the trend of some of the larger universities throughout the country, the Institute at Ohio Northern has the added advantage of the closely related engineering facilities combined with the selection of an excellent staff from the university. Mr. Gerald Smith serves as full time director of the Institute which so far has graduated some 300 foremen and industry personnel from its course.

THESE MEN AND WOMEN KEEP

Lehr Memorial serves as the nerve center of the campus, the headquarters of the members of the college administration. On the first floor are located the offices of the registrar, president, and dean of the university, dean of the arts college, admissions, the treasurer, business manager, and director of teacher training. On the second floor is the development office, department of alumni and public relations and offices of the dean of men and women. Though mostly unknown to the students, their work is done behind the scenes with their goal a smoothly functioning, financially stable institution.

AND STAFF GUIDE UNIVERSITY ORGANIZATION

Without the diligent work of the men and women on these pages, life here at Northern would be seriously hampered for the administration, faculty, and students alike. For without question, the organization of the school would soon fail if their work did not continue.

LIBRARY AND

Possibly the greatest individual improvements which the students felt upon the campus the past year, outside of the revamping of purely instructional buildings, was the moving of the library and the improvement of the Student Center. Relocation of the university library in Presser Hall from Brown building was one of the successful programs carried out by the administration in 1953. The Student Center, temporarily located in Terrace Hall, had its facilities supplemented in the acquisition of billiard and table tennis tables and a television set for the lounge room. The erection of a new Center is now under study by the university.

Librarian assistants cataloging material for easy reference.

Because of its favorable location, plus the addition of more equipment, the Student Center has become one of the most popular meeting places on campus.

Northern University

College of Liberal Arts

To whom it may concern, Greeting:

Known that in consideration of the satisfactory completion of a course of study and upon recommendation of the Faculty, the Board of this University, confers upon the degree of

Graduation to some is just a means to an end; just the fulfillment of a norm or a set of standards set up by the business world or the profession which they are to enter. To them, then, commencement and the completing of four years of education has little significance other than passing an artificial mark set up by society. To most of the class of 1954 at Ohio Northern, however, it represents the end of a phase of life which can never more be re-lived. It marks the finish of one important and happy phase, yet the beginning of another school, which has no special matriculation, no specific curriculum and whose teachers do not require absolute attendance. Whatever we wish to call this school, receiving the most from it remains with the individual. Thus also was the keynote of the class of '54 throughout its undergraduate days: it received from its college experience whatever its members put into it. And perhaps no other class in the eighty-two years of Ohio Northern's existence has witnessed such a transition as has taken place on our campus in the past four years. From arriving on a campus in the fall of 1950 when much was to be desired in many respects, an almost revolutionary change has occurred in the physical plant, in the educational facilities and staff and in the student recreation and residence accommodations. From arriving on a campus whose schools enjoyed only nominal recognition in 1950 they now leave a university fully accredited by the regional and professional associations. Within its four years at Northern it has witnessed its grid teams capture two conference championships and its basketball squad receive national recognition. It has seen its choir carry the name of the university throughout the country. And in all these the class of 1954 has contributed its share and in leaving the campus do so with the knowledge that those to follow will realize more fully the potentialities of the place we call alma mater.

Seniors

The Senior officers get together for a strictly posed picture in the Cub. Bill Schicilone, John Litteral and Russ Gibbons check over how much money should be in the class treasury with Margo Almgren.

SENIOR STATISTICS..

One hundred and eighty-eight seniors will receive their sheepskins at Ohio Northern's eighty-second commencement on June 6, 1954. Pharmacy again accounts for a goodly number of the graduates, 76 receiving degrees from this college. Liberal Arts, with the majority of its grads in secondary and elementary education, has 62. Thirty-two new lawyers finished with the class of '54 while eighteen received degrees in civil, electrical and mechanical engineering. The class of 1954 carried on the Northern "male versus female" tradition with an almost 5 to 1 ratio, thirty-three co-eds receiving degrees.

Seniors chose an all liberal arts slate to head them in their last year. President is Russell Gibbons of Hamburg, N. Y., and vice president John Litteral, Marion. Margo Almgren was named secretary and Bill Schicilone manipulated the purse strings of the treasury. The first class meeting in the fall quarter chose Professor Robert Bowden as class adviser and voted for a class assessment to leave a memorial to the university. A senior dance in February highlighted the class social activities.

12 SENIORS MAKE WHO'S WHO

Each year a group is chosen from the graduating class to be nominated for inclusion in the annual volume "Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities." The students so recognized in this publication are nominated from some 650 colleges and universities throughout the nation, and it has been a standard reference volume of student leadership now for twenty years. Nominations are made by a combined student-administration committee basing selection on scholarship, participation in extra-curricular activities, leadership on the college campus and promise of future usefulness. The twelve seniors chosen for the 1954 edition from the Ohio Northern campus represented all the four colleges according to their enrollment. Four each from pharmacy and liberal arts and two each from law and engineering comprise the selection.

COUNCIL FUNCTIONS AS UNDERGRADUATE SENATE

The Student Council is the governing body of Ohio Northern University. The Council meets every Tuesday in the Law building, and unless otherwise specified, the meetings are open to anyone. Besides working for the betterment of the school in general, its two major projects are Homecoming and May Day.

Each college elects four representatives to the Council, and four representatives-at-large are elected. The Council consults with the administration and makes recommendations concerning student activities, organizations, and traditions. It recommends a budget for Student Council activities to the Student Policy committee. It presents petitions and requests of the students to the administration. It supervises all campus elections. It grants and withholds permission to solicit money from the student body.

Some of its accomplishments this past year have included the creation of the Adelpian Society, which recognizes extra-curricular leadership, and the Student Court, the basic plans of which have been presented to the administration.

Outgoing student body president Howard Jones congratulates the president-elect of the 1953-54 Council, Guy DeSanctis.

POLICY BOARD

The Policy Board, which is comprised of both students and faculty, meets every quarter to discuss the distribution of the student activity fund. The student members of the board are representatives of the Student Council. In this way the student body has a voice in the allocation of their activity fees.

Newest organization on campus, and the one which represents all the organized factions in the student body within one coordinated group, is the Student Union Committee organized in the fall of 1953 and becoming a permanent group early this year. It was this committee which initiated the petition through which the student body voted a self-assessment of five dollars per quarter for each student to start a fund through which to erect a Student Union for Ohio Northern's students. With some fifteen thousands to be realized by the end of the year, a temporary structure is to be erected until a permanent union, set aside in the overall university development plan through a $250,000 allocation, is built. Represented on the Committee are the officers of the following groups: Senior, junior, sophomore and freshmen class presidents; Presidents of the Student Council, IFC, Pan Hellenic Council, organized Independent men and women; a delegate from the law college and a representative of the faculty. Mr. William Allman serves as advisor. Guiding force and chief impetus behind the committee and union plan has been Mrs. Francis Burdette, Dean of Women.

ADELPHIAN

New on the campus this year is the Adelphian, senior honorary society founded by the Student Council in an effort to give recognition to students who have given outstanding service and leadership in extra-curricular activities.

In the formation of this society, the Student Council hoped to provide an incentive for greater participation in campus organizations and thereby provide more school spirit. These students are an exemplification of the high standards set by the society. They are chosen by a point system based on every aspect of extra-curricular life.

The name Adelphian was taken from one of the original four literary societies which were founded on campus in the 1880's. The Adelphian was the society which was fostered by the founder, Henry Solomon Lehr, and it was a literary and social force on the campus for over four decades.

Nu Theta Kappa, honorary engineering society, was organized at Ohio Northern in 1915. The society gives recognition to the engineering students who have excelled in academic work. It aims to promote a higher standard of scholarship by recognizing such attainment. The sophomore with the highest academic standing is eligible as are all juniors and seniors who have an accumulative point average of 1.7. Candidates are expected to take an active part in other college and university activities.

THETA ALPHA PHI

Theta Alpha Phi, national dramatic fraternity, was founded at Ohio Northern in 1921 by Major Cliffe Deming, who was a professor of speech on this campus for almost 50 years. Membership to Theta Alpha Phi is based on dramatic ability and activity on the stage. To be eligible a student must have participated in a minimum of two major and two minor productions and must be voted upon by the membership.

The Ohio Northern College of Pharmacy Student Branch of the American Pharmaceutical Association was formed in 1949 and is open to all pharmacy and pre-pharmacy students. Weekly meetings have featured guest speakers from various Drug Houses, federal narcotics agents, and medical movies. The A. Ph. JUNIOR BAR ASSOCIATION

The Junior Bar Association of Ohio Northern University was organized on this campus in 1933. In August, 1953, the local group joined the National American Law Student Association. The present membership of the organization is fifty-five members. Among the many activities sponsored by the Junior Bar are the annual banquet honoring the president of the Ohio Bar Association, and the Barristers' Ball, the law students' yearly formal.

In June, 1953, the organization feted Dean Pettit with a banquet commemorating his twenty-fifth year of teaching in the College of Law, at which time the group presented the Dean with a cabinet model TV set.

During the Homecoming in October, 1953, a portrait of Dean Pettit was unveiled, which presently hangs in the law building. At both of the above events, many of the Dean's former students were present to express their appreciation for the untiring efforts of this great educator. At present the Junior Bar Association is in the process of organizing a speaking group to visit various colleges to solicit students for the College of Law. Organized on the campus this year was a pre-law club, with Mr. E. Hanson and Mr. George Forrest as advisors.

The Pre-Law Club was formed this year in an effort to promote greater interest in the legal profession among those students who plan to enter law school. Many of the Les Avocats, which is made up of law students, aims to improve the speaking abilities of the members. At weekly dinner meetings, two members are called upon to give short impromptu speeches. Following these speeches, two prepared talks are given on a wide variety of topics. These bi-weekly meetings have been devoted to organizational purposes. The club has visited a number of court sessions in surrounding cities to observe court room procedure and become more familiar with law proceedings.

The objectives of Delta Theta Phi are to unite fraternally congenial students of the law, to lead them and their fellow students to high scholarship and legal learning, to surround them with an environment such that the tradition of the law and of the profession shall descend upon them. In furtherance of these objectives the fraternity has monthly luncheons and banquets with speakers from the leading members of the legal profession. The members also visit trials and other legal proceedings. Social activities include smokers, parties and dances.

DELTA THETA PHI

The Omicron chapter of Sigma Delta Kappa national law fraternity was founded at Northern in 1923. It is an outgrowth of the Northern Law Club. The purpose of the Si Deks is to unite students of the law school so that traditions of the legal profession may be theirs. It is the aim of the fraternity to promote higher legal learning and understanding among the brethren, which in turn will better enable them to take their place in society. In the near future, the fraternity, with the help of their alumni, hopes to own its own fraternity house.

ENGINEERS EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

The Engineers Executive Council is composed of the four officers of all the engineering societies. The primary purpose of the Council is to coordinate the societies toward the betterment of the engineering student body. The Council sponsors the entire program for the annual Engineers' Week, held during February.

O. S. P. E.

The Northern student chapter of the Ohio Society of Professional Engineers, which was newly organized last year, boasts a membership of 92% of the Engineering College. The purpose of OSPE is to bring together engineers from all fields for discussion of common problems and thus create unity throughout the engineering college. The club sponsors speakers and movies at its weekly meetings, and during the year takes field trips. It sends three representatives to Columbus each month to attend regional student council meetings.

The purpose of the student chapter of American Society of Civil Engineers is to help the students get acquainted with the civil engineering profession. The chapter holds two monthly meetings which feature outside speakers or movies. The ASCE takes an active part in the annual

At meetings, technical reports are given, and movies and slides are shown, which supplement what is offered in the regular curriculum. AIEE also sponsors an annual picnic in the spring.

The objective of the Mechanical Engineers Club is to acquaint the student with the benefits of an affiliation with a professional society. In the fall, the senior members were guests at a meeting of the Dayton chapter of S.A.E. in Dayton. The M.E. Club also sponsored a field trip to Oberlin, Ohio, to inspect Diesel engines at the Oberlin Municipal Power Plant. Throughout the year, the club invites speakers on topics pertinent to this field of engineering.

RELIGIOUS COUNCIL

The purpose of the Religious Council, which consists of representatives from various organizations on campus, is to promote and encourage spiritual growth upon the campus and to provide opportunities for Christian service and fellowship. Religion and Life Week, held one week each year, is one of the major projects of the council. This association also helps select chapel speakers as well as sponsoring worthy fund drives such as the World Student Service Fund.

PRE-MINISTERIAL ASSOCIATION

The Pre-Ministerial Association is composed of students in pre-theology and religious work. Their aim is to promote closer fellowship in the group and to attempt to make religion more meaningful on campus. Projects of the group included the planning of several chapel programs.

The purpose of the Newman Club is to assist Catholic young people in secular educational centers to apply Christian thought and principles to the problems of the campus community and to the intellectual formation that they are receiving as college students. An annual retreat is held to foster the spiritual needs of the members, and outside speakers versed in specialized fields are brought in periodically to give the Christian approach to world events. Socially, the Newman Club sponsors a spring dance, and joins with associated clubs in outings each year. In its first year of competition, the Newman Club earned top honors in the independent football league and entered teams in the volleyball, basketball and baseball leagues.

The Wesley Fellowship Methodist church student group meets every week in an effort to promote good fellowship and increased understanding of Christian ideals. Members of this group visited the Methodist Student Movement Quadrennial Conference at Kansas University, Lawrence, Kansas. Prominent speakers are invited to the meetings throughout the year. In the spring, a retreat is held at Camp Agape in Newark, Ohio. On the social side, Wesley Fellowship sponsors barn dances, and skating and swimming parties.

The Lutheran Student Association is composed of all the Lutheran students on campus. The purpose of the association is to bring to the student the ministry of the church through the local congregation. Activities of worship, fellowship, study and discussion carried on periodically throughout the year attempt to integrate the student's academic experience with true Christian living:

LUTHERAN STUDENTS

The International Relations Club, founded on the campus in 1946 and affiliated with the Carnegie Foundation as a recognized chapter in 1951, was reorganized two years ago. Formerly concerned primarily with international affairs and their discussion, it now centers its activities around get-togethers with the foreign students and faculty members on campus. Represented in the university are some dozen nations, including Cuba, Egypt, Estonia, France, Germany, Iraq, Korea, Latvia, Nicaragua, Puerto Rico and Venezuela. Bi-weekly meetings bring occasional speakers to the campus and at least one social event is planned for each school year. An aim of the club is the eventual establishment of an International House on campus for foreign students.

Varsity N Men

The Varsity N Men are the lettermen's association on Ohio Northern's campus, composed of all men who have received a varsity award in football, basketball, baseball, golf, tennis or track in intercollegiate competition. N Men activities which are apparent on the campus each year is their participation in Homecoming and May Day with floats for the Queen, their supervision of refreshments at football and basketball games and the putting out of programs for home football games. It has always been one of the more active organizations on campus and in a sense is a departmental organization for physical education majors as well as a common association of men who have engaged in varsity competition for the Polar Bears.

The Dukes Athletic Club, founded in 1949, was created to promote good fellowship among men on campus through participation in intramural and varsity sports. Its membership throughout the years has been composed of both independent and fraternity members and though physical education majors have been the majority among its numbers there is no restrictive college requirement. Besides entering competition in the various intramural leagues in football, basketball, softball and volleyball the Dukes have cooperated with the Varsity N Men in campus athletic benefits and similar activities.

The Women's Athletic Association promotes an interest in sports and gymnastics as a means of creating physical efficiency, athletic accomplishment and good sportsmanship.

The WAA sponsors intramurals in volleyball, basketball, badminton, ping-pong, and softball. Trophies are awarded to the winning teams.

The annual WAA Revue, which exploits the modern dancing talents of all girls, proved highly successful once again. The proceeds were spent for trophies, pins, sweaters, and blankets which are awarded to members on a point basis. The WAA also sponsors varsity basketball and softball teams which play intercollegiate games.

ASSOCIATION OF WOMEN STUDENTS

The Association of Women students is an organization open to every woman attending the university. Activities of the group are planned by the legislative board composed of the officers and of representatives from each class.

Several activities to promote friendship among the members are sponsored throughout the year. At the beginning of the fall quarter, a party is given for the new women students. The winter quarter includes a formal dance and a leadership dinner to honor members who hold offices in campus organizations. In the spring, a farewell dinner is given in honor of the seniors.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

The John Davison FTA Chapter, formerly the Ohio Northern Education Association, was organized in 1953. The membership is comprised of students in all fields of teacher education.

Activities and projects of the organization included the observance of American Education Week, participation in a regional meeting at Findlay College with other FTA chapters of neighboring colleges, and a remedial workshop with outstanding specialists in this field whose efforts produced one of the best programs of the year.

UNIVERSITY BAND

The university band, under the direction of Prof. Robert Weidner, had another successful season of bringing instrumental music to the campus. The band was present at the home football games in Memorial stadium in the fall and played at a few of the closing basketball games in Taft gym. The forty-piece musical organization augmented the programs put on by the chorus-choir throughout the year and was well received in the assembly concerts which they gave. Highlight of the band activities was on February 15 when the annual pops concert was held in Lehr auditorium. Some fifteen instrumental numbers were presented, three of them being in collaboration with the choir.

CHORUS-CHOIR

Possibly one of the greatest factors in carrying the name of the university throughout the country has been its well-renowned chorus-choir. The choir has always had emphasis placed on it since the founding of the Department of Music by Theodore Presser over three quarters of a century ago. One of the most hard-working organizations on campus, its some fifty or more members practice daily and earn a well-deserved spring trip to the eastern states in April. Because of its activities the campus has become the center for regional and district secondary school music meets. In January such a choral clinic was held in Lehr auditorium by Dr. Harry Wilson, professor of music at Columbia university, and attended by some 200 high school singers as well as choir members.

Harry Robert Wilson, director of choral music at Columbia university and an internationally-known composer and conductor, holds a choral clinic with the university choir.

AMBASSADORS OF MUSIC . . .

Ohio Northern's chorus-choir has spread the name of the university throughout the East now for six consecutive years. For a university which has not placed especial emphasis on the fine arts it has always had an excellent choir and through it the department of music has experienced a special growth and service. Combining more than fifty voices it has, under the directorship of Professor Karl Roider, become one of the outstanding features of the university in the past few years.

THE O N U CHORUS-CHOIR

Besides the annual spring trip which is looked forward to by choir members the music department participates in a full schedule of activities throughout the year. Student and faculty recitals, programs of the university band, traveling artists in the guest series, vocal and instrumental ensembles and solo performances augment the concert series by nationally-known artists to round out a fully-developed program. Such a background serves not only to equip the music student but to enrich the cultural appreciation on the campus.

NORTHERN PLAYERS

After a year of quiet, the Northern Players came into its own. The first production of the year was "Night of January 16th." With a realistic setting in the court room of the Law building, it played before a capacity house for three nights.

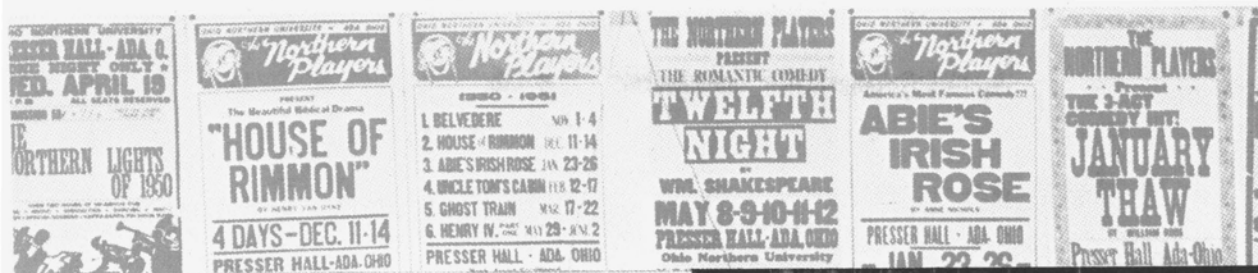

Winter quarter brought the beloved "I Remember Mama," which was highly successful also. The Spring production was Shakespeare's "Taming of the Shrew." Besides these major productions, the Players found time to put on numerous one-act plays in their "Little Theatre" in Brown Building. They also took charge of several assembly programs.

The Players were invited to bring their productions to many of the neighboring towns and always gave a creditable performance. They also visited Cleveland, Bowling Green and other cities to see and profit by the performances of other dramatic groups. The Players with their many amusing skits and poster displays grew rapidly into one of the most popular and active organizations on campus.

NORTHERN THESPIANS PLAY THE ROLE...

Campus dramatics were rejuvenated this year when Professor William Allman of Speech and Theatre Arts took over its direction. The Northern Players, dormant for a year, was reactivated and grew into one of the largest organizations on campus. A "Little Theatre" was installed in Brown building, and one-act plays supplemented regular Players' productions.

The courtroom in the law building proved to be a natural setting for "The Night of January 16th," which was enacted there for three nights. Here Dick Jones, defense attorney in the play, sums up his case before jurors, who were selected from the audience each night.

GIRLS' DORMITORY

Center of co-ed activities at Ohio Northern is the Girls' Dormitory on South Union street, where are housed all the underclass resident women on campus. This year all senior girls were centered at Terrace Hall and a general plan was followed in having all freshmen girls on the first floor north wing of the dormitory and sophomore and junior co-eds on the second floor wings. Active members of the three sororities are delegated various wings on the second floor with meeting rooms. Under the head resident, Mrs. Phoebe Lamont, student proctors for the various corridors are chosen, and they together with the governing board of the Association of Women Students, review and assist in making the various dormitory rules concerning hours, use of the dining room and lounge and other related problems.

EVENTS OF THE YEAR

This year the Review was headed by sophomore Ron Johnston as Editor-in-Chief, with Bob Evans managing the business end. Together with Assistant Editors Carol Perlowski and Steve Gamble, and with Don Herman, Lee Tinsler and Anne Koch working in the sports, feature and copy departments, the bi-weekly voice of Ohio Northern's students was a regular standby. These students assumed most of the responsibility for putting out the Review during 1953-54, and with the hard-working staff assisting promised to keep up the tradition of high local journalism.

NORTHERN PINPOINTS EVENTS

THE NORTHERN MAKES ITS FORTY-FOURTH APPEARANCE

The 1954 Northern staff waded past the obstacles that face all yearbook staffs, on its way to producing a book that would tell, in words and pictures, the story of Ohio Northern, its people and events, in 1953-54. Somehow copy got written, pictures were taken, and deadlines were met. Like the usual Northern yearbook staff, this year's group started with almost no experience, but the Editor and Business Manager soon indoctrinated their helpers into the mysteries of yearbook making. Out of their efforts eventually came the forty-fourth of a long line of Northern.

Chief photographer for the Northern was Clyde Lamb, who took more than 200 group and activity shots used in the annual.

Copy Editor Perlowski and sports chief Herman check on make-up while Anne Koch and Shirley LeVine, copy and assistant editors, look on.

OF THE YEAR

Entering into the second year with the production of the Northern by the offset printing method, chief emphasis placed by the staff this year was in getting the book out before graduation. In order to do this, all copy, make-up and photography had to be completed by March 1. Overcoming successfully the serious obstacle of no student photographers, the Northern secured as its chief picture taker Mr. Clyde Lamb of the physical education department, who took practically all of the pictures in the '55 Northern with the exception of the individual sittings of seniors and underclassmen.

STUDENT PUBLICATIONS

One of the important phases of campus life at Northern which is almost entirely student run is that of publications. The university sponsors and supports three official undergraduate publications: the Northern annual, yearbook started in 1910; the Northern Review, bi-weekly newspaper founded in 1920; and the Northern Light, freshman handbook now in its thirtieth year. A publication which was inaugurated a few years past is the Ampul, official magazine of the student branch of the American Pharmaceutical Association and of the college of pharmacy, issued quarterly.

The editor and business manager positions of the yearbook and newspaper are both competitive, appointments being made by the Committee on Student Publications. This group is composed of the yearbook and newspaper advisors, the vice president of the university, two appointed faculty members and three student members appointed by the Student Council. Eight other unofficial campus publications, the organs of the fraternity chapters on campus, are issued regularly and some have received recognition by their national groups.

A closely-knit group of students attending New York University laid the foundation for the Alpha Epsilon Pi fraternity on November 7, 1913. Ohio Northern received its Kappa chapter charter ten years later. A E Pi is now the largest of twelve national Jewish social fraternities, with 64 chapters throughout the country. The chapter has both a Winter and Spring formal and a May Alumni weekend as well as the regular house dances throughout the year. A E Pi teams were entered in all intramural fraternity competition during the year and a freshmen contingent indicates hopes for a bright athletic future for Kappa. In the early part of 1954 the chapter had 13 active and nine pledge members. Professor Hal Lieberman of the college of liberal arts holds membership in the fraternity and serves as faculty advisor.

ALPHA SIGMA PHI

Gamma Alpha chapter of national Alpha Sigma Phi was established on the Ohio Northern campus in 1942, but its predecessors, Alpha Kappa Pi and Theta Nu Epsilon, date to 1910, being the first such secret Greekletter societies founded here. The chapter recently completed purchase of the house on Gilbert street. During the last year the "cardinal and stone" house accomplished many things, having outstanding teams fielded in the various intramural competition and having a record pledge class. Alpha Sig social activities were highlighted by the traditional Apache dance, the Dawnbreakers' Ball and the annual spring formal. On the campus Gamma Alpha had nineteen brothers and twenty-seven pledges at the beginning of winter quarter. Faculty members include Marvin English and Barney Poole of the physical education department and Dean Emeritus' Raabe and Smull of the pharmacy and engineering colleges.

DELTA SIGMA PHI

Delta Sigma Phi, like all other college social fraternities, purposes to give its members a beneficial and intimate fellowship so necessary to full development. The local group preceding our present chapter on campus was established in 1914 and in 1920 became a part of the national Delta Sigma Phi social fraternity. During these past forty years several social events have become tradition, including the winter and spring formals, the "Bowery Ball" and the Sailors' Ball. The Delta Sigs on campus have always participated in most of the activities of the university, holding many offices in the various clubs and organizations. Winter quarter Alpha Eta chapter had twenty-eight active and pledge members. Faculty members are Dean Lawrence Archer of the College of Engineering and Dr. Robert Hilliard and Professor Karl Roeder of the College of Liberal Arts.

KAPPA PSI

Founded originally as a medical fraternity in 1879, Kappa Psi was reorganized as a professional pharmaceutical fraternity thirty years ago. It now is the largest such group in the country, many of its chapters assuming the role as a well-rounded social fraternity on various campi. This past year Gamma Delta had a most successful school year, winning the homecoming pushmobile race for the sixth consecutive time and also copping the house decorations trophy. Socially speaking the annual sophomore, junior, senior and pledge dances were held during the year. A barbecue was held in the fall and the season was climaxed with the Spring Formal held at Indian Lake. On the sports front Kappa Psi placed third in football, and copped firsts in volleyball and basketball, as they garnered for the All-Sports trophy. On campus Deans Albert Smith and Rudolph Raabe and Professor Mattys Joungeard hold membership in Gamma Delta, the chapter having 27 active and 16 pledge members at the start of the year.

Now in its twenty-eighth year on the campus, Mu Beta of Phi Mu Delta has enjoyed a prosperous year in a variety of activities. A good social season was realized with such affairs as the pledge dance, the Monte Carlo dance, various house parties and the annual Spring Formal which this past year was held on the shores of Indian Lake. Several of our brothers held top positions in the various campus organizations, having an especially good representation in the university choir. For the fourth straight year Phi Mu Delta copped fraternity and all-campus scholarship honors, having the best house point average among all the Greek houses. Faculty members who are chapter members include Dr. Robert VanAtta, initiated into the brotherhood in November, and Professor D. R. Lowman of the liberal arts college. In February Mu Beta had 19 actives and 15 pledge members.

SIGMA PI

Sigma Pi fraternity was founded November 26, 1897 at Vincennes, Indiana, on the campus of Vincennes University. The sixth chapter of the national group was installed as Ohio Northern Zeta on June 1, 1912, the third chapter which has maintained a continued existence at Northern. At Ohio Northern the local chapter has always maintained an active existence, participating in every phase of athletic, social and organization activity on campus. Just as with all fraternities our biggest event of the year is the annual Spring formal, known as the Orchard Formal, at which time the Sweetheart of Sigma Pi is elected. Other annual social affairs, such as the Apache Dance, Hard Times Dance, pledge dance and others are held throughout the year. On the Northern faculty Norman Jennings, professor in the college of engineering, serves as our advisor. Zeta chapter had fifteen actives and eight pledge members in February.

SIGMA PHI EPSILON

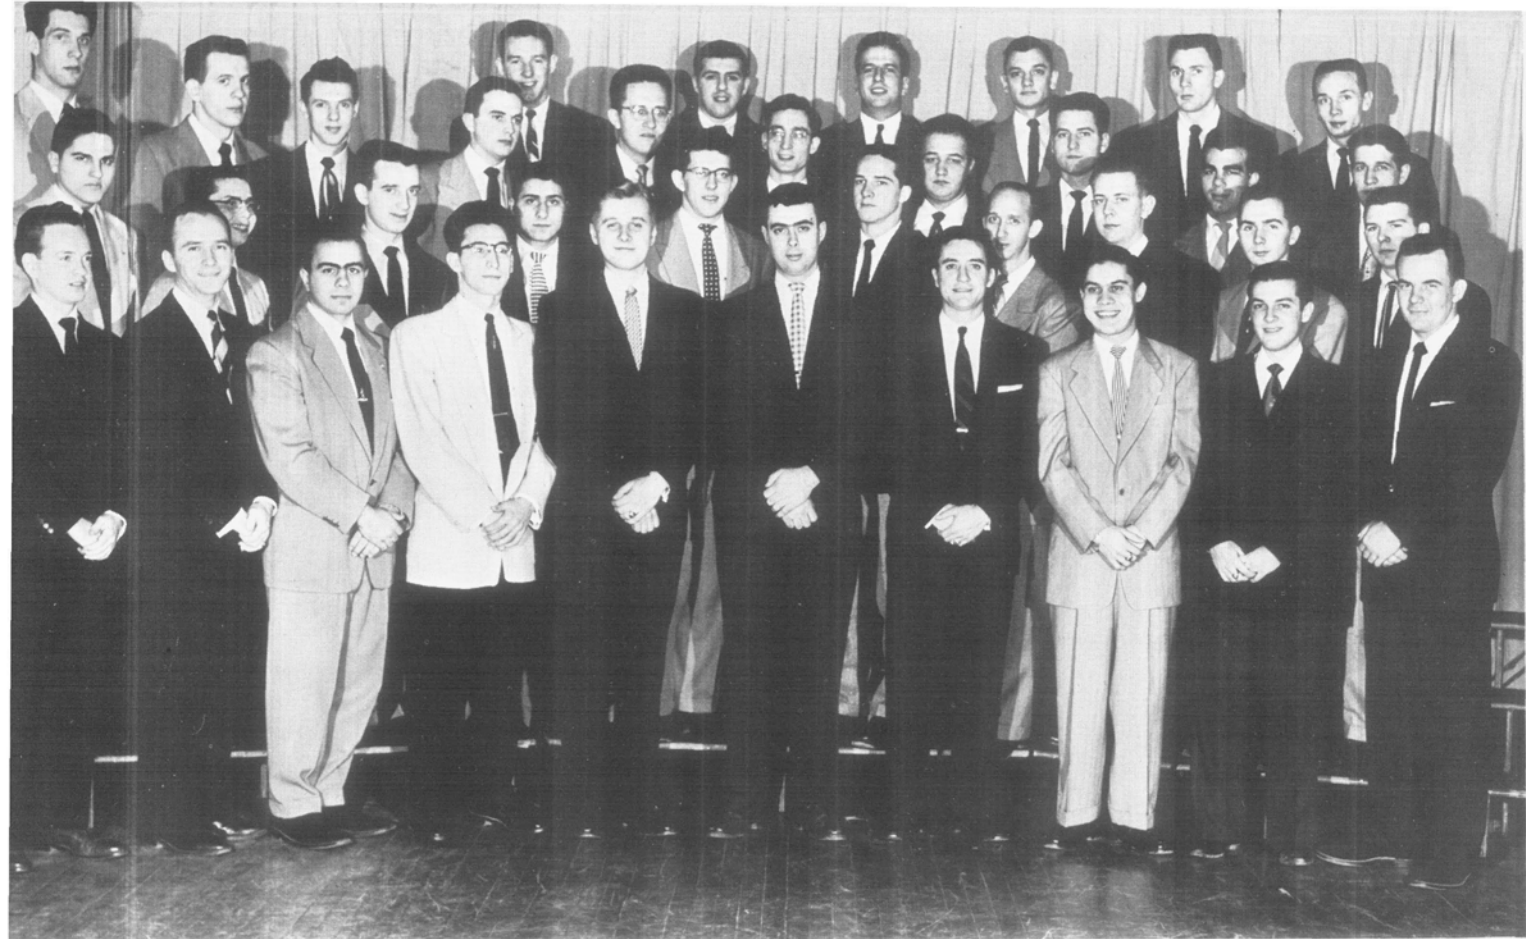

Ohio Alpha of Sigma Phi Epsilon represents the oldest chapter of any fraternity on the Ohio Northern campus, as well as being the largest national represented. The chapter house on South Gilbert Street built in 1916 was the first fraternity house built as such in the state. Since Sig Ep is classified as a social fraternity every opportunity is taken to present the finest in social events. This includes many house dances throughout the year, as well as many house parties and banquets throughout the year. A tea for freshmen women in the fall, the big alumni banquet at Homecoming, and the Winter and Spring Formals highlight the year. Theme dances such as the Daisy Mae dance, a visit to a French cafe, a trip to old Mexico and an "Under the Sea" motif have characterized these events. The fraternity also holds a buffet supper for each of the sororities and a senior farewell banquet spring quarter. Ohio Alpha members have actively participated in varsity and intramural sports as well as in the various campus organizations throughout the school year.

THETA KAPPA PHI

Theta Kappa Phi entered into its thirtieth year on the Ohio Northern campus with its house now owned completely by the alumni, and with an active brotherhood, and pledge class. Homecoming brought together many of the Zeta alumni at the annual banquet given by the active chapter, while the school year was filled with a complete social schedule including the pledge dance, the annual Turtle Hop, numerous house dances and the Spring Formal held at the Springbrook country club. Spring also was the occasion for the annual Tri-Chapter meet with the other province chapters, held last spring at Ohio Northern. Besides copping this athletic trophy Zeta became the possessor of the fraternity and all-campus football cup last fall, and were close runners-up in volleyball and basketball. Few organizations on campus were without their representatives from Theta Kappa Phi, many of the executive posts being filled by Zeta men. Professor Vincent Immel of the college of law serves as chapter advisor to Zeta, which in February had twenty-eight active and fourteen pledge members.

PAN-HELL COORDINATES CAMPUS SORORITIES

The Pan-Hellenic Council is made up of two representatives from each of the sororities. The Council serves as a unifying body for the three sororities to maintain on a high plane sorority life and intersorority relationships, to cooperate with college authorities in their effort to maintain high social and scholastic standards throughout the whole college, and to be a forum for the discussion of questions of interest to the local college and sorority situation.

The most popular event sponsored by the Pan-Hellenic Council each year is the Tri-sorority formal during spring quarter. The dance is sponsored for the enjoyment of the members and pledges of each of the three sororities. Also during this past year the Pan-Hellenic Council has been responsible for the purchasing of the trophy for the Scholarship Award among the sororities.

PHI CHI

For the Phi Chi's, this was a very eventful and successful year. After taking the Greek Sing trophy, they followed up in the fall by not only winning the Pushmobile race, but also furnishing Homecoming Queen, social chairman, Anne Koch.

The social scene began with a "Football Frolic" which welcomed an overflow crowd. The winter rush party, "The Grand Opening of the Diamond Horseshoe" was a huge success. At this time 12 girls became pledges. The theme of the winter formal was "Oriental Gardens." Many alumni were present to add to these festivities held at the Student Center. The social calendar was climaxed with the annual Gypsy dance.

On the athletic side, the Phi Chi's won the basketball tournament, furnished four first string Varsity players, and proved strong contenders in every other sport.

TAU KAPPA KAPPA

Tau Kappa Kappa, the oldest sorority on campus, was organized by a small group of girls on campus in 1900. Since its organization, it has made rapid progress in membership, scholarship, and activities.

To begin the social calendar for the year, the TKK's welcomed the freshmen at a weiner roast at Memorial Park, and then entertained them with the annual Hobo Hop at the Student Center. During December, Sheba Kuhner was crowned queen of the I.F.C. Ball. The holiday season was celebrated at the home of our advisor Mrs.

A. C. Snith.

This year's rush party, "Grand Opening of the Pink Poodle Lounge" proved to be the most successful yet. At this time, the TKK's gained 12 pledges. Next on the agenda was the winter formal with the theme "Out of This World". The year was brought to a happy climax with the annual Pirate Dance. Academically, the TKK's continued their fine record by receiving the Sorority Scholarship trophy once again.

THETA PHI DELTA

Alpha of Theta Phi Delta was introduced to Northern's campus in 1909. For 15 years, the Theta's maintained an active existence. Then, in 1924, all sororities were compelled to disband if they would not become nationally affiliated.

When the University relented in 1933, Theta Phi Delta was the first sorority to return to campus. Today with over 400 alumnae scattered throughout the country, the Theta's are still maintaining scholastic and social standards established almost 40 years ago.

Last spring, the Theta's won the May Day float competition with their version of "The Old Mill Stream". The successful winter rush party "Theta's Go Collegiate" was instrumental in the gaining of nine pledges. The big social event of the year was the formal in February held at the Ada City Hall, the theme of which was "Theta's in Cairo".

SORORITY RUSHING AND ACTIVITIES COME TO THE FRONT...

Rush week and sorority pledging the third week of the winter quarter are one of the high-spots of Ohio Northern co-eds during the school year. This is especially true for the freshman girls, who decide with which of the three groups they would like to affiliate. After the rush parties, held on consecutive nights at the Terrace, there is a silent period, during which no sorority sister may speak to a rushee, of one day's duration. Formal pledge initiation, and the quarter of pledgship following it are an important part of a co-ed's life on campus. All three sororities hold their formals in the winter quarter and in May combine to give the annual Tri-Sorority formal off campus.

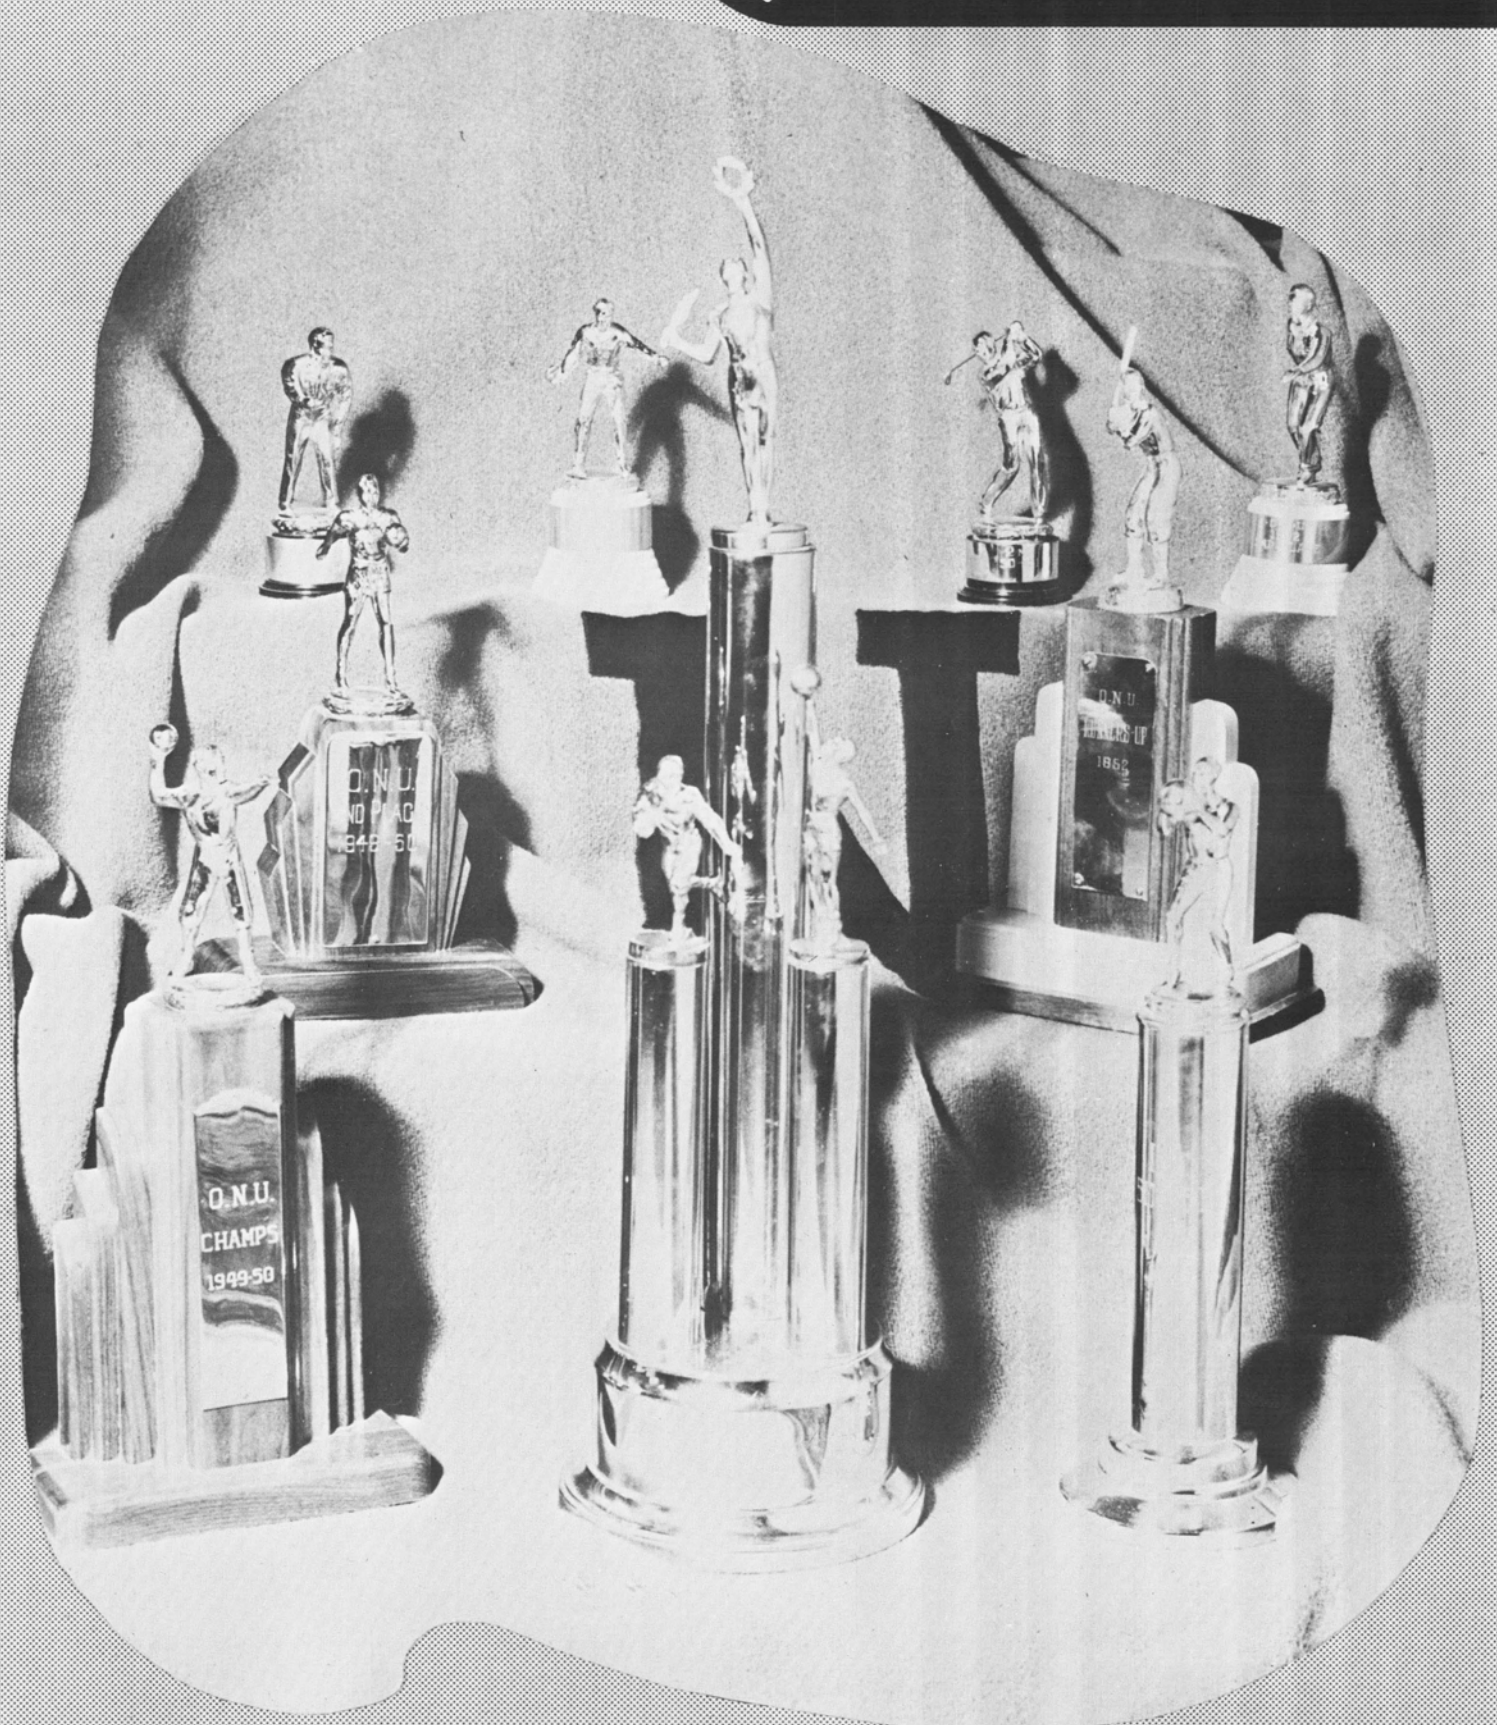

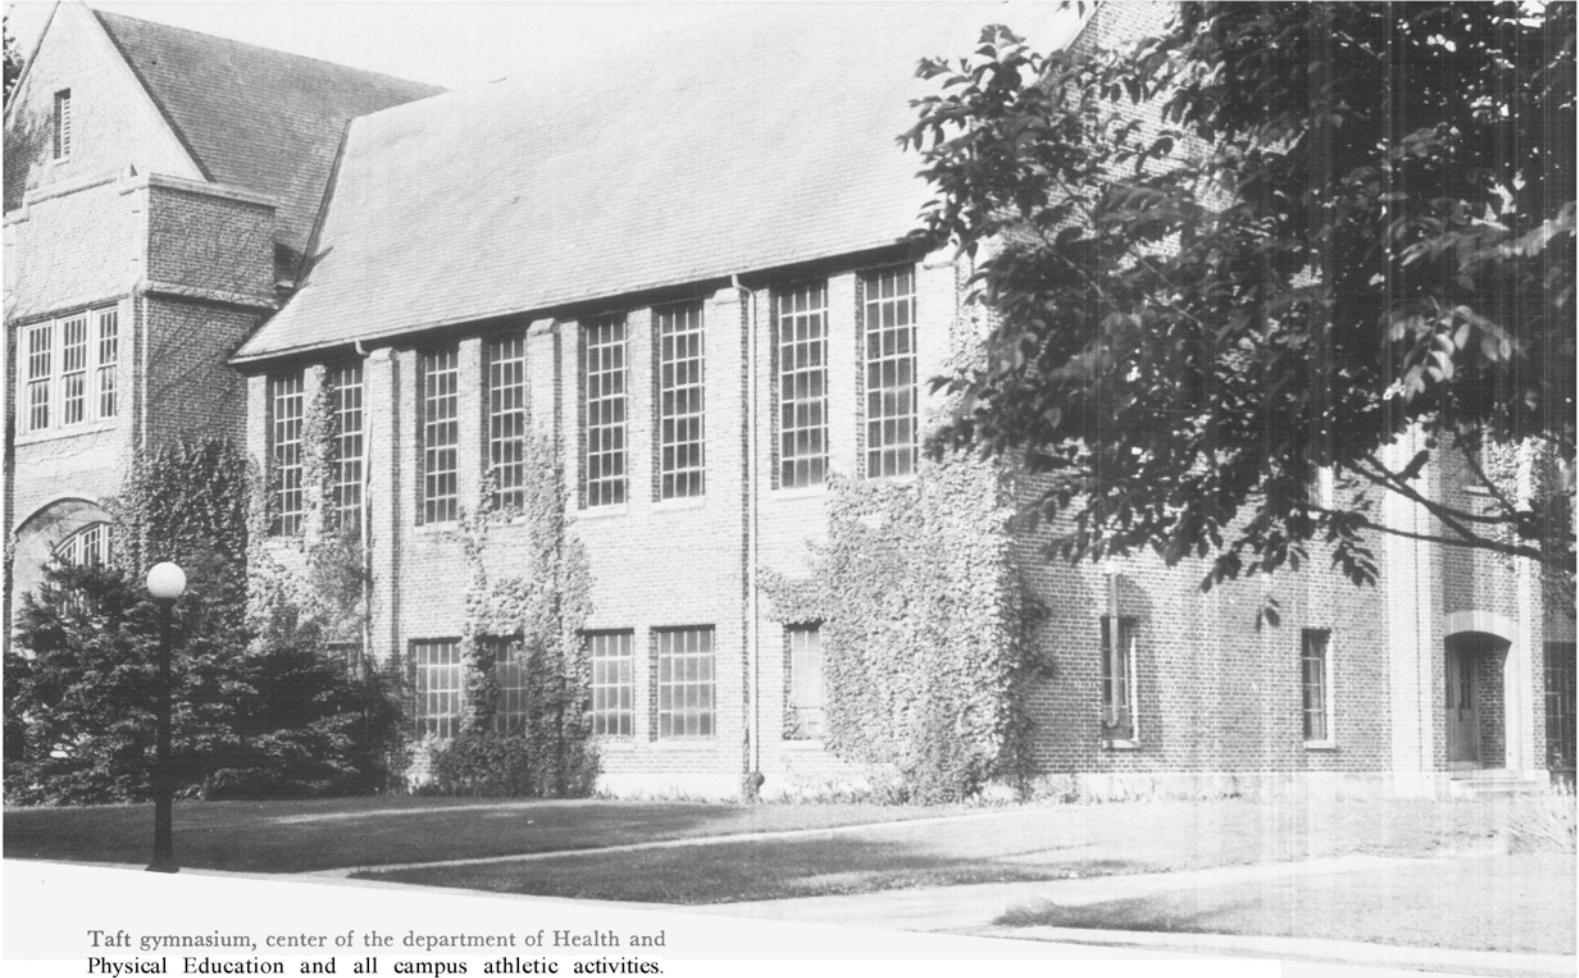

Below: Sororities return the various fraternity serenades throughout the year with their own vocal efforts upon behalf of sisters running for the various campus queen positions. Above: Attired appropriately for one of the house Apache Dances a dormitory trio strike a Parisian pose.

NORTHERN REFLECTS ON A PROUD ATHLETIC TRADITION

Ohio Northern's physical education department, founded in 1920, has an enviable record throughout the state for producing successful coaches. More than two hundred high schools have had Ohio Northern mentors, and presently such collegiate institutions as Kansas, Arizona State, Bucknell, Rhode Island State and St. Joseph's have Northern alumni guiding their grid or court teams. Northern inaugurated one of the first intercollegiate football teams in the midwest sixty years ago, and this year is the half-century mark of Polar Bear college basketball competition. Such all-time gridiron greats as Knute Rockne and Fielding H. ("Hurry Up") Yost played their first football in Northern games at Ada and it was here that the forward pass was first used in a game of intercollegiate football. Today Northern competes in the Mid Ohio Athletic Conference with Findlay, Ashland, Bluffton, Cedarville, Defiance and Wilmington as co-members, and is also a member of the National Collegiate Athletic Association and the National Association for Intercollegiate Athletics.

BEAR GRIDDEBS BOG DOWN IN '53 SEASON WITH 1-7-1 RECORD

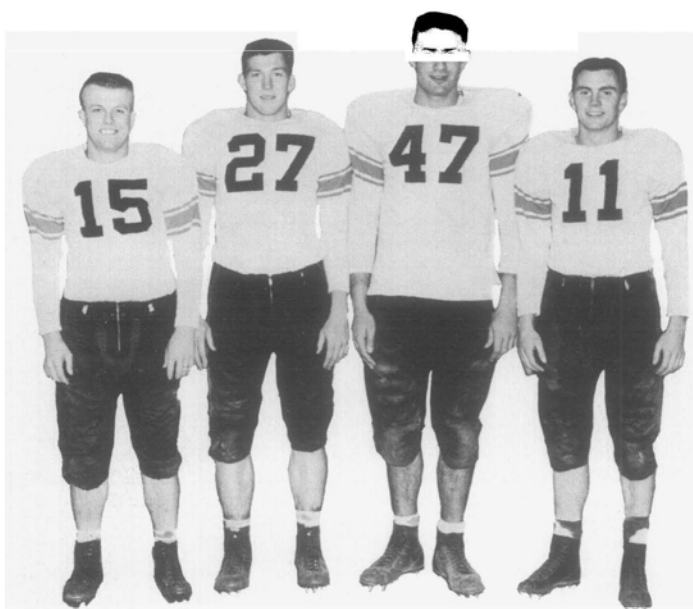

1953 saw the near complete turnabout of the previous season's record, as the Polar Bears managed to win but one game for coach Clyde Lamb. It was a far cry from the 1952 season when the Northern grid-ders rolled up 370 points against its oppo-nent's 150 in nine tilts, copping the Mid Ohio Conference crown for the second time in three years of conference play. This year it appeared that the losses sus-tained by graduations and Uncle Sam were too much for the Bears to contend with. Only ten men returned from last year's championship team and out of these only two were starters. Though the rest of the team was composed of solid men they were lacking in that all-important football necessity : experience.

Gridiron mentors English and Lamb map cam-paign for the '53 season.

Preseason fall practice started the first of September for the Bear gridders as their opening tilt was a full week before the start of school. Above, conducting a skull session for his gridders is line coach English. Below, End coach Barney Poole and coach English employ motion pictures of previous games to pinpoint team weaknesses and strong points.

No better example of this definite lack can be shown than in Northern's first game when the Bears journeyed east to meet Maryland State College, one of 1952's unbeaten and untied teams in the nation, at Princess Ann on Sept. 19. Maryland started slowly with a touchdown in the first quarter and two more in the second. However, things got out of control as far as the Polar Bear was concerned, when in the third and fourth frames they built up the score to a final and convincing 47-0. Though many Bear fans looked upon this opening tilt as a tuneup, similar to the similar 47-0 trouncing by Arkansas State in '52, after which the Bears entered a seven-game winning streak, such was not to be the case.

On September 26 the Fighting Lutherans of Capitol put on an unexpected show of defensive football to match the offensive drive of the Lambmen all through the game. The Capitol team hardly saw the ball the whole afternoon but in football it has to be handled only once and the boys from Cap proved this to the extent of a 7-0 win. They scored in the fourth period on a series of plays which culminated in the T.D. and the conversion. The home team fought back but to no avail, and though they outgained Capitol in rushing and were on the Lutheran's seven-yard line they could not get the ball across.

Seven days later the team took to the road again. This time it was to Ashland in the first conference encounter, in the opening defense of the Mid Ohio crown. The Eagles knew it and seemingly hadn't forgotten the lacing they received from the Bears the year before, marching to a 7-0 lead. Making a showing the Bears retaliated with their first seven-pointer of the year when Young passed to Rogers and Booher converted. The game was nip and tuck the rest of the way until late in the fourth quarter when a Northern punt fell backwards towards our own end zone. An alert Eagle picked it up and carried it on in and with a successful conversion Ashland went out front 14-7. Once again the Bears strove to come back but the fortunes of gridiron play had decreed otherwise.

Only four graduating seniors finished with the Polar Bears this season, but together they represented twelve seasons experience on the Northern gridiron. Ned Booher of Tipp City and Jim Myers of Kent were both Bear quarterbacks while Bob Raebel and Perry Patsiavos saw regular action on the line in the end and tackle slots respectively.

FOOTBALL

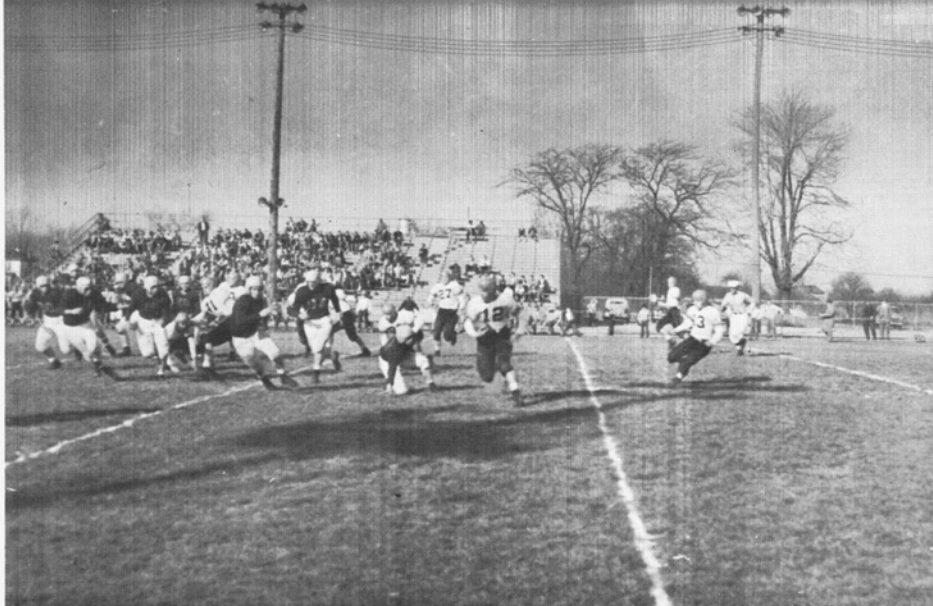

PRACTICALLY ALL NEW GRID CONTINGENT IN 1953 BEAR SQUAD

The hapless eleven finally came back to Ada for the first of their only two home games, to let the localities get a gander at the apparently frozen Polar Bear. The occasion was a night game October 10 with a practically unheard-of Northern Michigan College. They were heard-of when they left, however, holding the winless Lambmen to a 7-7 tie. The game was a see-saw battle, the second in a row for the Northern gridders. Our lone touchdown was by Kidd with the conversion by Young. Good running by LaScola and the passing of Kidd set up the Northern scoring.

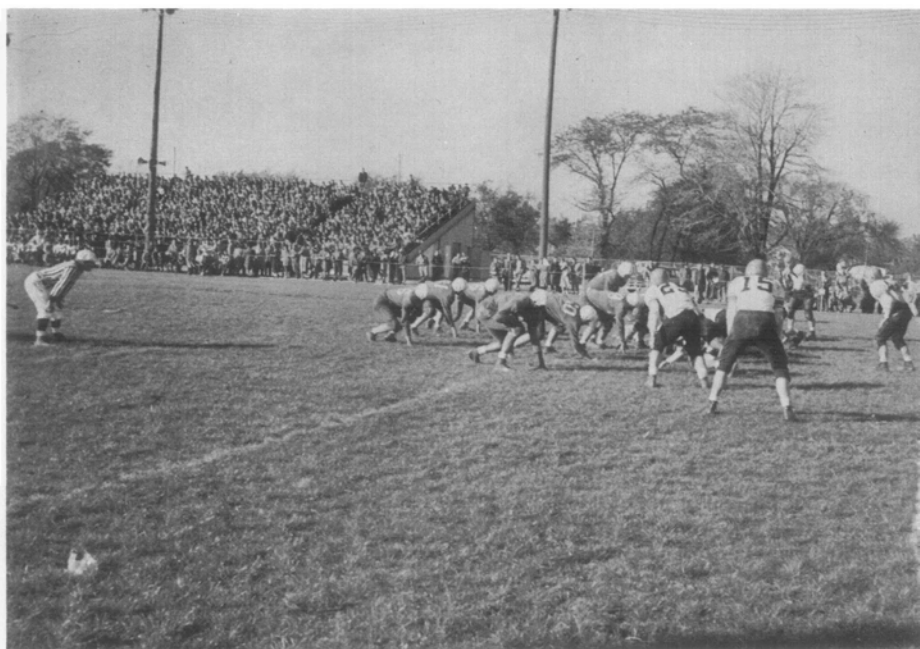

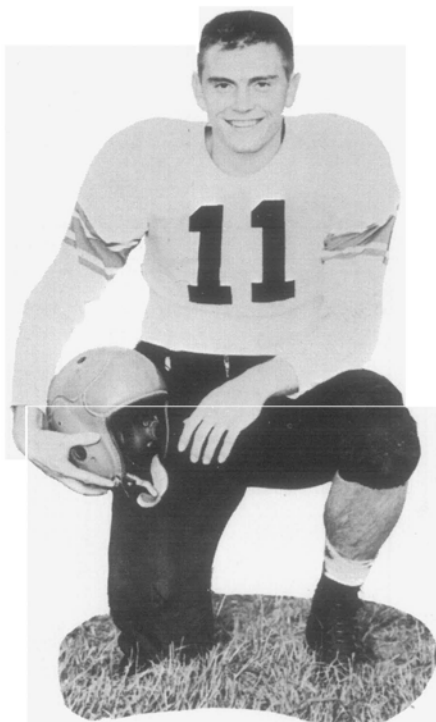

Bluffton's Beavers inflicted Northern's fourth loss of the year the next Saturday night, October 17, and it was the third of a series of gridiron flukes. The Bears were behind 18-12 late in the fourth quarter when they moved the ball down to the Beaver six yard line. Cortazzo ran around end and was brought down on the no-inch line. The play could have been called either way but the result was not in our favor, and the next play the Bears were pushed back. No other scoring opportunities presented themselves and the frustrating 18-12 tally stood until the end of the game. Scoring both touchdowns that evening was Tom Young who performed a fine running and passing game.

The next two games carried nothing worthwhile from Northern's standpoint. At that stage of the season the Bears found the going extremely rough. On October 24 Northern staged its annual Homecoming celebration with the invading Defiance Yellow Jackets coming to Ada. But Defiance wasn't having any of this and brought a bruising, battering and heckling team that drove through the Bears for the Jackets' fifth straight win. They also went on to become one of the few undefeated and untied teams in the nation while they won the Mid Ohio Conference crown. Though Northern opened the scoring early in the first quarter they were finished in that department there also, the final tally being 28-7.

Above: Back Tom Young takes off on a fifty-yard touchdown jaunt in the early stages of the Defiance Homecoming game at Memorial Stadium. Middle: Polar Bears and Lutherans scramble for the pigskin in Capitol game; Northern players are Martindale, Young and Wiechart. Below: Running the ball to the no-inch line was not enough for Northern in the Bluffton night tilt, as no score was called and the Beavers won the final decision.

Jim Myers was chosen by his teammates as the best offensive back on the '53 Bear grid squad.

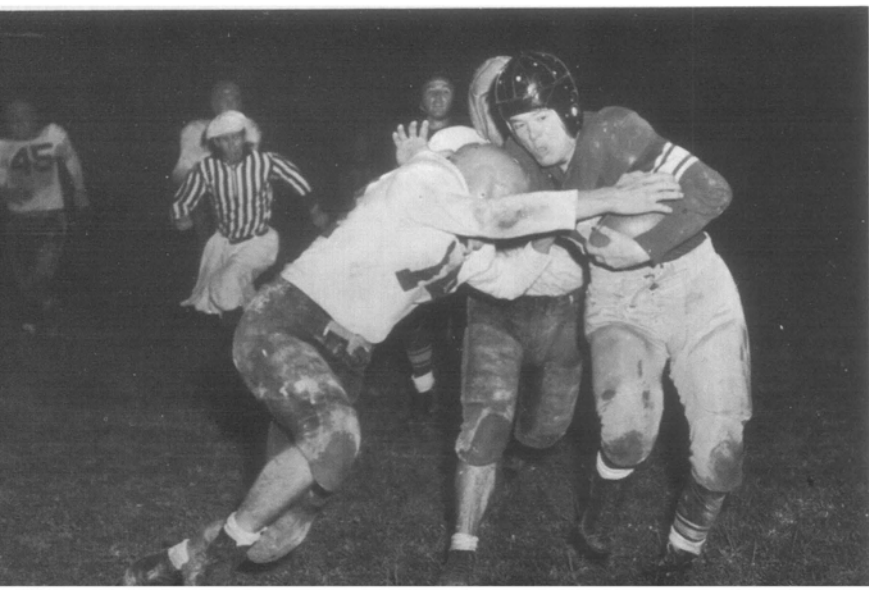

Defiance gridders line up against the Polar Bear's defense before a capacity Homecoming crowd in Memorial Stadium.

BEARS GIVE UP CONFERENCE CROWN

Following up Defiance on the "Beat Northern" parade were the Larries of St. Lawrence University up in Canton, New York. The game was a T.D. parade for the upstate New Yorkers as they won going away, 46-13, scoring in every period. Striking pay dirt for Northern were Rob Raebel and Dennis Irons who both stood out on the offensivework. On defense it was stalwart Jack Williams who led the way.

The high spot of the season came when the discouraged gridders, going into the final round of season play, met up and pulled a surprise win over their arch-rivals, nearby Findlay College. Coming through with a fine display of offensive sharpness and defensive alertness, the Bears showed that they did have the power and the qualities of a winning team to put one away. So complete was the upset that Findlay was held to but two first downs during the whole game. Pacing the Bear attack were Wieckert, Raebel and Martindale, all of whom scored. On defense it was Myers and Williams and a host of others who held the Oilers in check on their home ground and in weather appropriate for Polar Bears.

A Beaver back is brought down in the Bluffton evening tilt.

BUT UPSET OILER RIVALS

The Polar Bear joy was to be short-lived, however, as the club ended their season on a sour note by being on the reverse end of a similar score at the hands of a previously winless University of Buffalo eleven November 14. Meeting the Bulls in Buffalo's municipal Civic Stadium for a night tilt the Buffalo team protected an unusual record by decisioning the Bears 20-0. The Buffalo gridders had not lost their last game in ten years and were without a win when they entered the last fray, being apprehensive over Northern's Nov. 7 win over Findlay after the latter had trounced them 34-0 previously in Buffalo. The first quarter belonged to the Bears, marching to within Buffalo's ten-yard line three times but being unable to score. The Polar Bear was not on the prowl in any threatening territory for the rest of the game, however, and the game ended in a 20-0 victory for the Buffalo team. Traveling over 4000 miles and meeting three out of state teams the Bears finished with a 1-7-1 record.

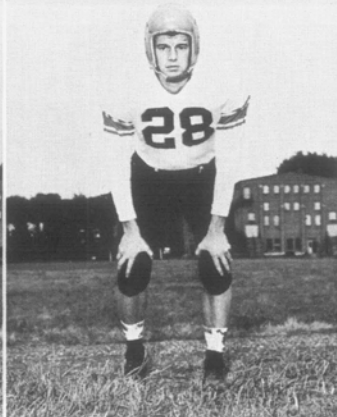

Jack Williams, left, was named best defensive linesman for the season and Bob Raebel the outstanding offensive linesman. Raebel finished four years of playing with the Northern grid team, playing most of them as a starting regular.

POLAR BEAR PIGSKIN REVIEW...

Ohio Northern was in independent grid competition for twenty-one years, then helped organize and was a member of the Ohio Conference for thirty-one years (1916-49) and since has been a member of the Mid Ohio Conference. Earliest recorded game was with Findlay college in 1894 and the longest series with Bluffton (47 games). Worst shellacking which the Bears gave an opponent was against Muskingum in 1911 when they dubbed them 103-0 and on the reverse end Notre Dame beat the locals 87-0 the next year. In 1904 Northern fielded its famous "point-a-minute" team, scoring 308 points in five games. Largest recorded attendance at a Polar Bear tilt was at Pittsburgh in 1932 when 17,500 viewed the Northern-Panther engagement in Pitt stadium. In 1934 the unbeaten Ohio Conference champion Polar Bears were the only unscored team in the nation, which stands as the best record to date. Knute Rockne played his first game at Ada (1911) and it was the following year that Notre Dame initiated the first use of the forward pass in an intercollegiate football game, against Ohio Northern where is now Wibbler baseball field.

ENGLISHMEN FACED '53-'54 SEASON WITH ALL NEW UNDERCLASS STARTING AGGREGATION

The same spectre which played havoc with Northern's '53 grid team put the skids on the Polar Bear court aggregation. Again, as in football, inexperience was the key factor. Not one of last year's starting five which had produced the best Polar Bear court team in a decade with a 15-5 record and with a NAIA offensive team record of fourth in the nation among small colleges under its belt, was around when Taft gym inaugurated the fiftieth basketball season at Northern.

The Bears were without the services of their phenomenal scorer Bob Rupert and rebound artist Don Kling as was expected, but what was not expected was that the other three members of that starting five who were scheduled to return would not see action. Jim Stahl, last season's most valuable player by vote of his teammates, and forward Bob Brookhart met up with the military during the summer. The call to arms was not far behind in snatching the Bears' other first string four-year man, Bob Raebel, who after the initial games of the opening season was also lost.

Faced with a quick rebuilding job with only three lettermen remaining on the squad Coach English turned to moulding a team from half a dozen freshmen and two transfers. To manage this task he employed the shuffle system for a few games and eventually came up with a quintet fresh to the Northern hardwood. Making up the starting five for most of the season were Joe Hohman at center, Glenn Smith and Tracy Love at forwards and Bob Tucker and Chuck Violet at the guard posts. Freshmen Larry Michaelis and Jim Miller alternated at the guard slots throughout the season.

Veteran Jim Heitzman saw considerable action, as did freshmen Joe Herman and Mike Dugan. Ron Parshall and Jack Suhr, both products of Ada, moved up from the junior varsity towards the end of the season to see varsity action. It was this eleven-man unit which finished the season with an 11-9 record, with four of those in the latter category being of the "heartbreaking" variety by one or two buckets. Won-loss records do not recognize marginal statistics, however, and the Bears could thus only boast a mediocre season, if not great promise for the future.

The Bears started things off slow December 2 when they dropped the season opener to a visiting Indiana Tech team 78-73, after maintaining a three quarter lead. An away fray that weekend at Otterbein didn't fare any better but the Englishmen came into their own to snatch their first win at Tiffin, defeating a Heidelberg quintet 77-68. Tri-State went home licking their wounds December 12 after a 92-66 fray, but the following night the Bears without the services of Bob Raebel were dropped by Ashland in a close contest. Then came a four game winning streak in which Giffin, Otterbein, Cedarville and Defiance fell before the Polar Bear court attack. The high-scoring Giffin contest, the revenge win against Otterbein and the dropping of a highly-favored Defiance Yellow Jacket team characterized these court victories.

POLAR BEARS SET 80.01 OFFENSIVE AVERAGE

However, the Findlay college Oilers, who later went on to cop their fourth Mid-Ohio basketball crown, soon broke this streak when they drubbed the Bears 84-63 on the Oilers' home court. Following that, the Bluffton Beavers won a 71-70 decision on their court, which proved to be the heartbreaker of the season for Northern. A third conference loss was sustained at the hands of a visiting Ashland team Jauary 28 by an 86-80 margin. Two non-conference teams, Hiram and Fenn, were decisioned by the Rears the following week, but Defiance pulled a narrow 76-75 revenge win out of the bag on February 3. Hapless Cedarville, on the bottom of the Mid-Ohio circuit, was victim of a 104-54 Polar Bear victory and Bluffton was on the low end of an 82-78 score to give the Englishmen two league wins before they met the champion Oilers again. This proved to be no contest, as 1000 people witnessed the Findlay five roll up a 26 point margin in what proved to be a chilly night for the Polar Bears. Finishing the season with an eastern jaunt the Northern squad journeyed to Alfred, New York, to take on Alfred University and Ithaca to meet Hobart College. They split their traveling week-end with a 74-70 victory over Alfred and a 5-point-edge defeat at the hands of Hobart.

Northern gets off a shot in the Oiler fray. An estimated 1000 people witnessed the traditional rival match with the Findlay visitors.

One of the most enlightening aspects of the 1953-54 basketball season was the brilliant play of sophomore Glenn Smith. Smith transferred to *Northern from Bowling Green, where he had been a standout with the freshmen Falcon five.

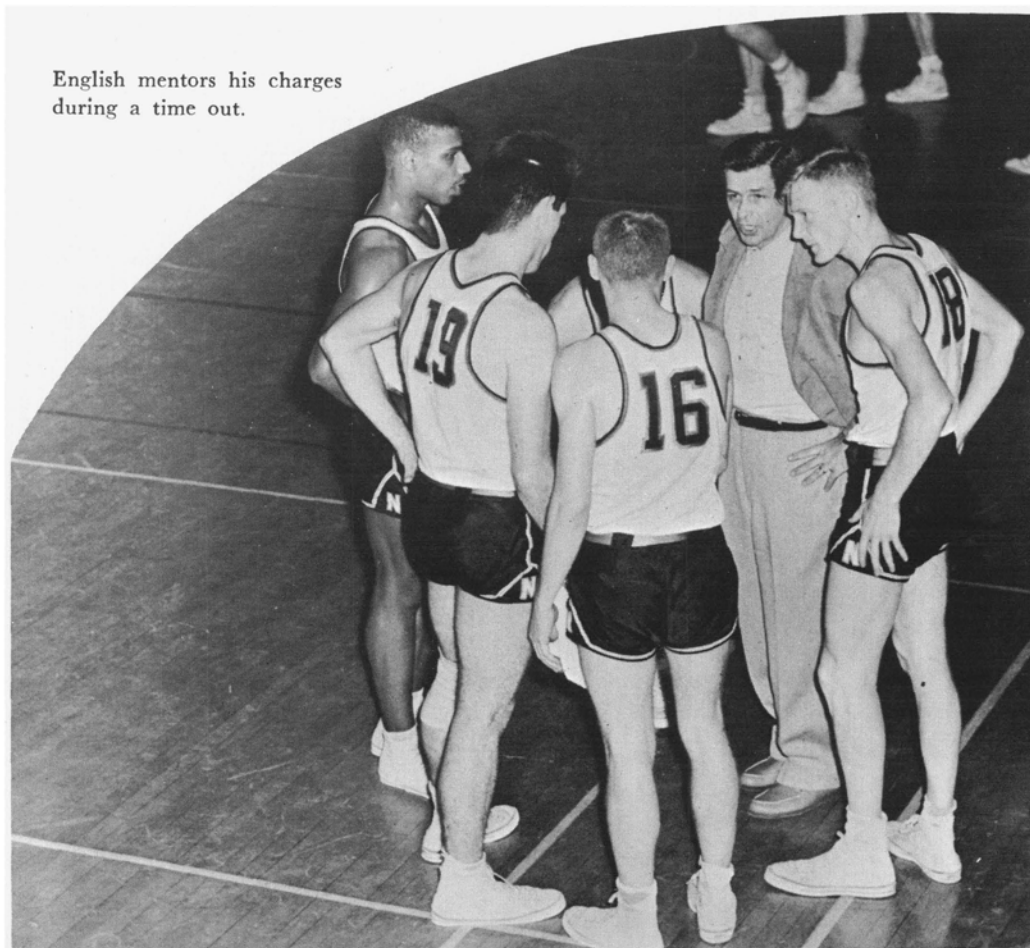

Though Coach English lost his scoring champion and rebound artist via graduation and three other regulars by way of the military, he found in the Cridersville boy a ball player who could, and did, cop both these crowns in his first year of court play for Northern. In the scoring department "Smitty" attempted 405 field goals and made 169, for a 41.8 average. In free throws he put in 79 for 144 giving him a grand total of 417 points for the season, a 20.9 average for the season.

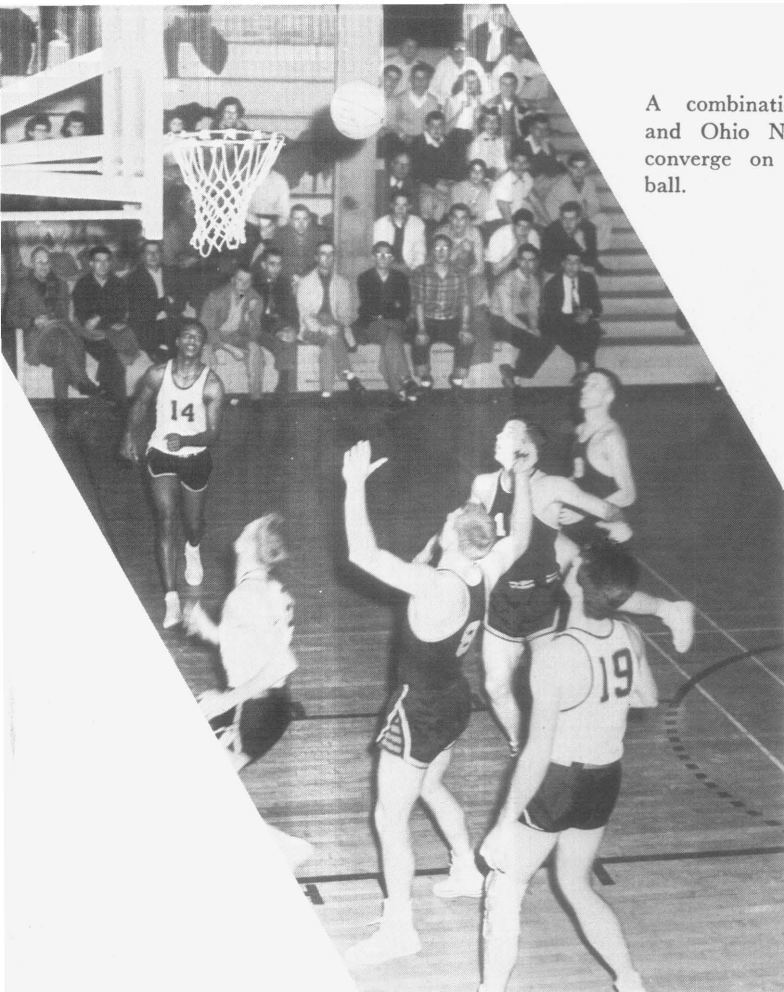

The highlight of his scoring spree came on January 4 when he caged 43 points against Giffin to break Rupert's old record of 35, as well as that of Findlay's Herk Wolfe, who made 40 here last season, for the Taft gym floor record for individual scoring. Rebounding found Glenn on top, too, as he snagged 171 on offense and 181 on defense for a total of 552. With two years of court play for Northern left, Smith has a good chance to crack Rupert's all-time scoring record of 1126 points, but any way you look at it, it spells a good basketball outlook for the Polar Bears.

SOPHOMORE SMITH COPS INDIVIDUAL SCORING AND REBOUND RECORDS IN FIRST YEAR OF BEAR COURT PLAY

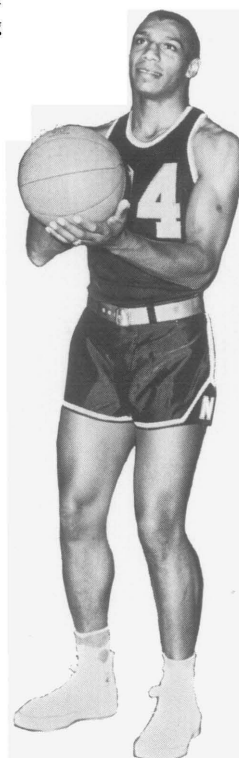

Possibly the greatest single comeback in an individual game this season was the Bluffton fray at Taft court on February 12. Seeking a revenge win over the Beavers because of their previous one-point loss the Bears found themselves behind at the third quarter, brought the score up to a 78-78 tie and came out on top of an 82-78 score. Again the Bears did a balancing act when they reversed an earlier loss at Otterbein, this time drubbing the Otters by an 89-82 tally. Highest scoring games of the year were against Giffin and Cedarville, where the 100-point mark was broken twice. At Cedarville coach English employed the two-platoon system in court play, six men scoring in the double bracket column.

A combination Cedarville and Ohio Northern sextet converge on a rebounding ball.

Tracy Love, Polar Bear freshman forward from Geneva, copped 257 points in his first year on the hardwood for Northern.

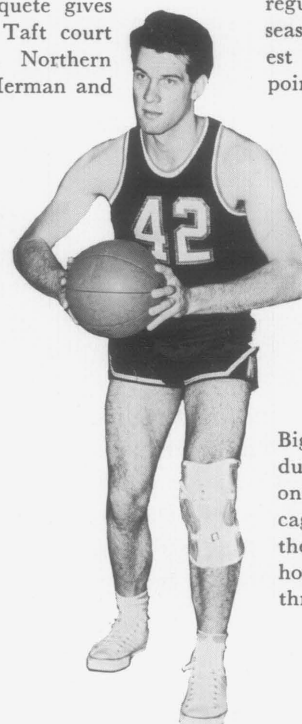

Bob Tucker, junior transfer from Wabash college, held a regular guard slot during the season and was second highest scorer, garnering 286 points.

BEARS PASS 50-YEAR MARK OF COURT PLAY

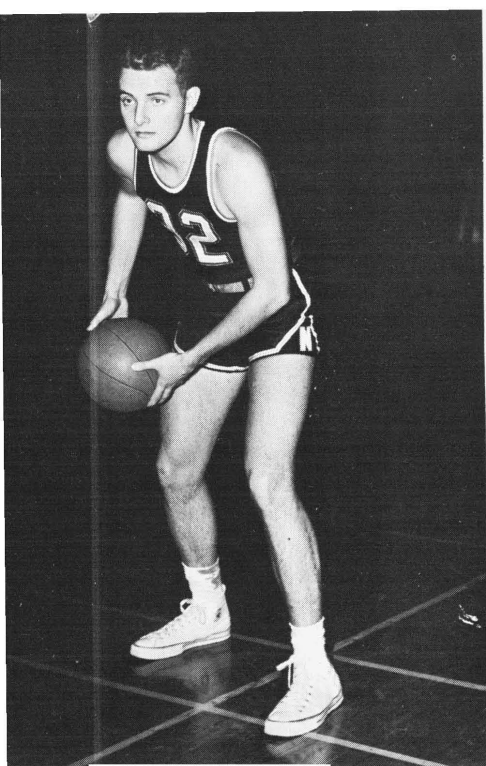

In the department of statistics, the Polar Bears scored 1612 points for their twenty games, for an average of 80.01 points per game, as compared to their opponents' total of 1488 points, or a 74.4 average. The team field goal percentage was 33.3 percent and the free throw average read 61 per cent. As it was in 1903 that Ohio Normal University fielded their first basketball team for intercollegiate play this season marked the half-century point of hardwood play for the Polar Bears.

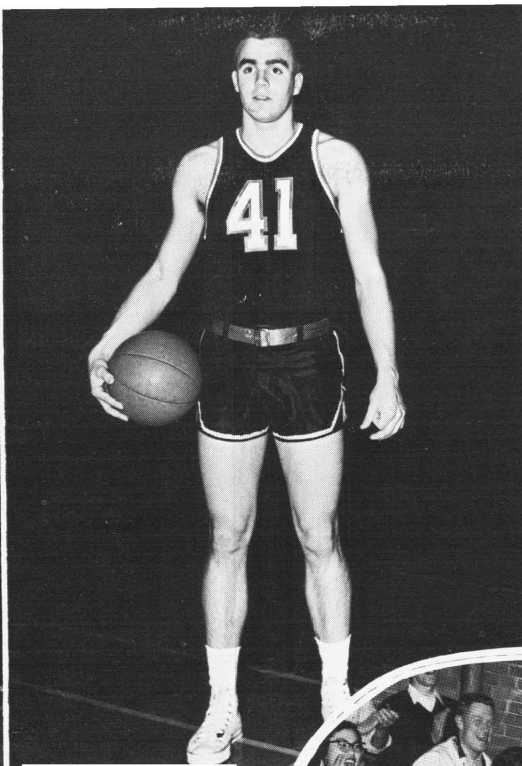

The Oilers' Marquette gives an assist in the Taft court contest while a Northern triad of Smith, Herman and Love converge.

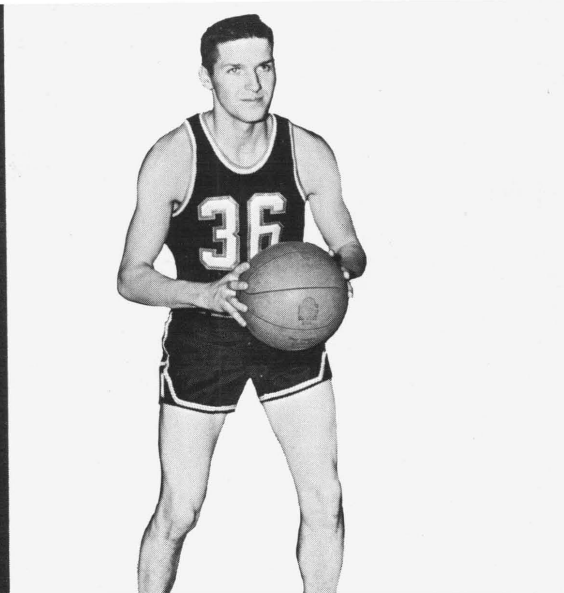

Big 6-4 Joe Hohman had the dual distinction of being the only senior on the '53-54 cage squad, as well as being the sole four-year veteran holding down a regular berth through most of the season.

Bill Heitzman, Forward

Joe Herman, Guard

Top man in the free-throw percentage was junior guard Chuck Violet who attempted 91, making 61 for a 67% mark.

The 1953-54 season saw the Bear basketball team play ten conference engagements and ten non-league tilts, with an equal number played on the Taft hardwood and away. The Bears ended up with a 4-5 in the Mid-Ohio Conference and eighteenth in the state out of forty-one colleges. Four out-of-state teams were played and some 1600 miles were put on the road by the traveling Englishmen, chiefly when the Polar Bear finished the season prowling to central New York state for the Alfred and Hobart frays.

BEAR MOUNDSMEN FINISH SEASON WITH 4-4 IN MOC

A run of the mill season characterized the 1953 Northern diamond effort. The overall season record showed a four win and seven loss effort, with the ball club playing an even .500 game in Conference competition. The four victories were registered against MOC members Bluffton, Cedarville and Findlay. Leading in the hitting department of the Bear ball club was second baseman and team captain Skip Baughman who pounded the pellet at a .421 clip and drove in eleven runs. In fielding first baseman Bob Brookhart led in fielding averages with .978. Coach Marv English had a battery of six hurlers for the season. Moundsmen for the Bears were Don Kling, Tom Syler, Don Black, Tom Williams, Bill Gyer and Ron Hull.

HARRIERS PLACE SECOND IN CONFERENCE

All of Northern's meets in 1953 were of the triangular variety, with the Polar Bears failing to come out on top in any of them, finishing second in three and third in one. In the Conference meet held here at the Memorial field track the Orange and Black placed second behind a powerful Bluffton squad. ONU cindermen coached by Barney Poole placed third in the triangular meet at Heidelberg while they came in second at the Adrian meet. John Mannik was the leading point maker for the Bears, his discus toss at the state collegiate meet at Ohio Wesleyan gaining third place laurels.

POLAR BEAR NETMEN TAKE NOC TILT

The 1953 tennis season proved to be a very successful one for the Bears. The overall record was five wins against three losses, all three of these being by one match each. Highlight of the season was the defeat of Bluffton in a playoff game for the Mid-Ohio crown, the Bears coming through for three years to achieve the title. Player Coach Larry Fout had a squad composed of five letterwinners from last season. Early in the season the Bear netters met former coach Werner Peterson's Bethany charges, shutting them out 6-0 in the first tilt and taking the return game 6-1. Leading the squad in singles wins were Pomerantz and Kahn with identical records of seven wins and one loss. Close behind was Jim Dixon with six triumphs and one setback. Heading the doubles lineup was the duo of Kahn and Dixon. Team manager was Tom Lytle.

NORTHERN COPS LINK CROWN FOR FOURTH STRAIGHT YEAR

Though inclement weather during most of the golfing season held the Polar Bear linksmen to only four matches being played they were able to retain the Mid-Ohio championship for the fourth time. Starting the season with a hard luck setback, the Bears absorbed a 7-5 decision at the hands of Wooster. After about two weeks of rain the Bears finally got back onto the greens and came through with an impressive 6-0 win over Defiance. A match with Heidelberg again saw the Orange and Black being edged out, this time by a tally of 6-5. However, the season had a bright ending when the local duffers took the Mid-Ohio Conference trophy in a tourney with Bluffton and Defiance. Senior Dick Zurz took medalist honors for the season. Other link veterans under coach Clyde Lamb were Rudy Prinz, Joe Parteleno, Joe DaPore, Fleet Brenneman and Larry Jiminez.

JUNIOR VARSITY BASKETBALL

Copping scoring honors for the Cubs was Ronnie Parshall, who hit for 129 points in the eight court frays for a 16.1 average.

Junior varsity basketball for 1953-54 was again under the direction of Barney Poole. The Polar Bear Cubs played rather a short season, being on the prowl only for an eight-game slate. Many games that were previously scheduled were called off due to prevailing difficulties. For the eight games played, the Cubs broke even with a 4-4 record. Highest point outburst occurred when the J. V.'s drubbed Cedarville's junior cagers 96-23. Scoring 485 points for the season, they finished with a 65.5 offensive average.

MENS' INTRAMURALS

The intramural department was reorganized this past year under the direction of Barney Poole of the coaching staff. Two leagues were formed in four major sports and half a dozen minor ones throughout the school year. Physical education majors were designated to referee the major contests and a point system set up and coordinated by an Intramural Sports Council consisting of team captains and sport managers meeting at intervals with the Intramural director.

Opening the program with touch football in the fall, twelve teams were entered in the two grid leagues. Winner of the fraternity crown were the Theta Kaps, sporting a 7-0 record with only 14 points scored against them. They copped the campus title when they defeated the Newman Club six, winners of the independent league.

Intramural play, as governed by the Intramural Sports Council, includes football, basketball and baseball as major sports, with volleyball, table tennis, horseshoes, tennis singles and doubles and golf as minor sports. An all-campus track meet is also held every spring. Points are awarded in the fraternity league for firsts and runner-ups and the group with the greatest accumulation at the end of the year is awarded the All-Sports trophy. Alpha Sigma Phi has held the coveted cup for four straight years now, moulding a well-rounded sports machine into a consistent campus sports threat.

20 TEAMS ENTERED IN INTRAMURAL HARDWOOD LEAGUES AT TAFT

An expanded intramural program saw twenty different basketball aggregations enter into hoop play this year, eight in the Greek league and twelve in the independent circuit. The Kappa Psi five came through with a 7-0 record to cop fraternity honors while the Dukes went through an eleven-game schedule to win over the largest independent league in a decade. Because of the many teams entered dates for games were at a minimum the whole season.

Spring of last year saw the Alpha Sig machine taking the fraternity baseball and horseshoes cups, following through with a like performance in the table tennis tournament. Upsetting a favored Delta Sig ball club, the Sigs clinched their 1953 All-Sports aspirations. Alpha Epsilon Pi came through with a strong singles and doubles combination, copping the tennis crown. In the golf tourney, Phi Mu Delta emerged top contestants while Theta Kappa Phi copped the golf driving cup. The Alpha Sig track and field team edged out the Phi Mu's with a 71 point showing to take the annual track meet held in May. Fight Night, an annual event of pugilistic and wrestling skill which added points to the fraternity sports race, was held for the fourth year in March with Kappa Psi taking the majority of the events.

GIRLS' INTRAMURALS

The Girls' Intramural department, spurred on by a greater interest in women's athletics, had a busy schedule for the year. In the fall six volleyball teams competed and the rivalry was keen as the freshmen team came through undefeated and three clubs tied for runner-up. Winter quarter began a dual schedule of badminton and basketball. The same freshmen team came through in the former department while Theta Phi Delta took seconds. The Phi Chi's easily took the basketball crown, going through the season without a loss.

Activities

Cub co-eds survey the new situation with the beginning of a new year: L. Gilmore; A. Anastasi and S. Pilkington.

Sign-wearing, especially by the freshman girls, was one Northern tradition which upperclassmen appreciated at the beginning of school.

BEANIES AGAIN MAKE THEIR APPEARANCE . . .

Every year townspeople and oldtimers on the campus can depend upon one thing to occur about the end of September. Orange and Black will come into its own as usually a couple of hundred Northern beanies and freshman handbooks are in evidence about the school. It has been the custom of freshmen to live by certain rules called Freshman Traditions, and woe to the underclass violator who is caught by a sophomore vigilante committee! Violators are reported to the Student Council, which in turn metes out penalties. These rules remain in effect until the Thanksgiving vacation unless the freshmen are victorious in the flagpole rush at Homecoming. Needless to say the vanguard of the class of '57 were no different from their predecessors for the past few years.

The Wesley Fellowship get-together for freshmen was one of the many occasions on which new students could meet friends during freshman week.

Registration week the end of September presented complexities to freshmen and upperclassmen alike.

Pseudo-dramatics takes over Lehr stage every year in the weeks preceding Homecoming and May Day, when the various sororities combine with fraternity support to elect their candidates for Queen. Homecoming '53 was no exception and the usually absentee chapel goers were there for entertainment for a change. The skit enacted for candidate Anne Koch proved to be a vote-getter though electioneering was hot and heavy.

Homecoming day at Ohio Northern, 1953, brings back thoughts of crisp autumn weather, old friends and returning grads, and the traditional football game and Homecoming dance. The week-end program began on Friday afternoon with the annual freshman-sophomore flagpole rush west of the old football field in back of Taft gym. Frosh attempts at burning a fire at the base of the pole to melt the upperclass grease on it proved futile in the end and the cubs lost again in the challenge.

HOMECOMING

A pep rally and bonfire followed that evening and the next morning fraternity members arose early to put the finishing touches on their house decorations in time for the judges' arrival. The Greek pushmobile races followed, with fraternity and sorority speedsters competing in the mile-long contest. The brothers of Kappa Psi carried off trophies for the fraternity race as well as decorations, while Phi Chi sorority took the other pushmobile trophy.

Northern's Igloo Polar Bear swatted the Defiance yellow jackets in the Kappa Psi winning homecoming decoration.

After the smoke had cleared Bill Hall posed on the Kappa Psi speed machine which won the pushmobile trophy for his fraternity. Denny Irons holds the pushmobile while fraternity alumni admire their prize winner.

Attendants Johns, Bowers and Yehl brave the icy Ada weather in the pre-game Homecoming parade.

PUSHMOBILE RACE, FOOTBALL GAME, THE DANCE...

After the pushmobile race house decorations were judged, following which the fraternity houses, sororities and various groups served lunch and had get-togethers with their returning alumni. Saturday afternoon was homecoming at its height. Following a parade through campus and town, Memorial stadium soon became filled to capacity. Visitors and students watched the arrival of the Ohio Northern band, the cheerleaders, the homecoming attendants and finally the Queen, Anne Koch. During halftime the pushmobile and decorations winners were announced and the awards presented by the Queen. Though the plucky Northern gridders lost the grid fray to the invading Defiance Yellow Jackets that fact did not dampen the spirits of the day.

The Queen and court received bouquets during intermission at the Homecoming Dance in Taft gym that evening.

The Queen and her court reign over the Homecoming Dance.

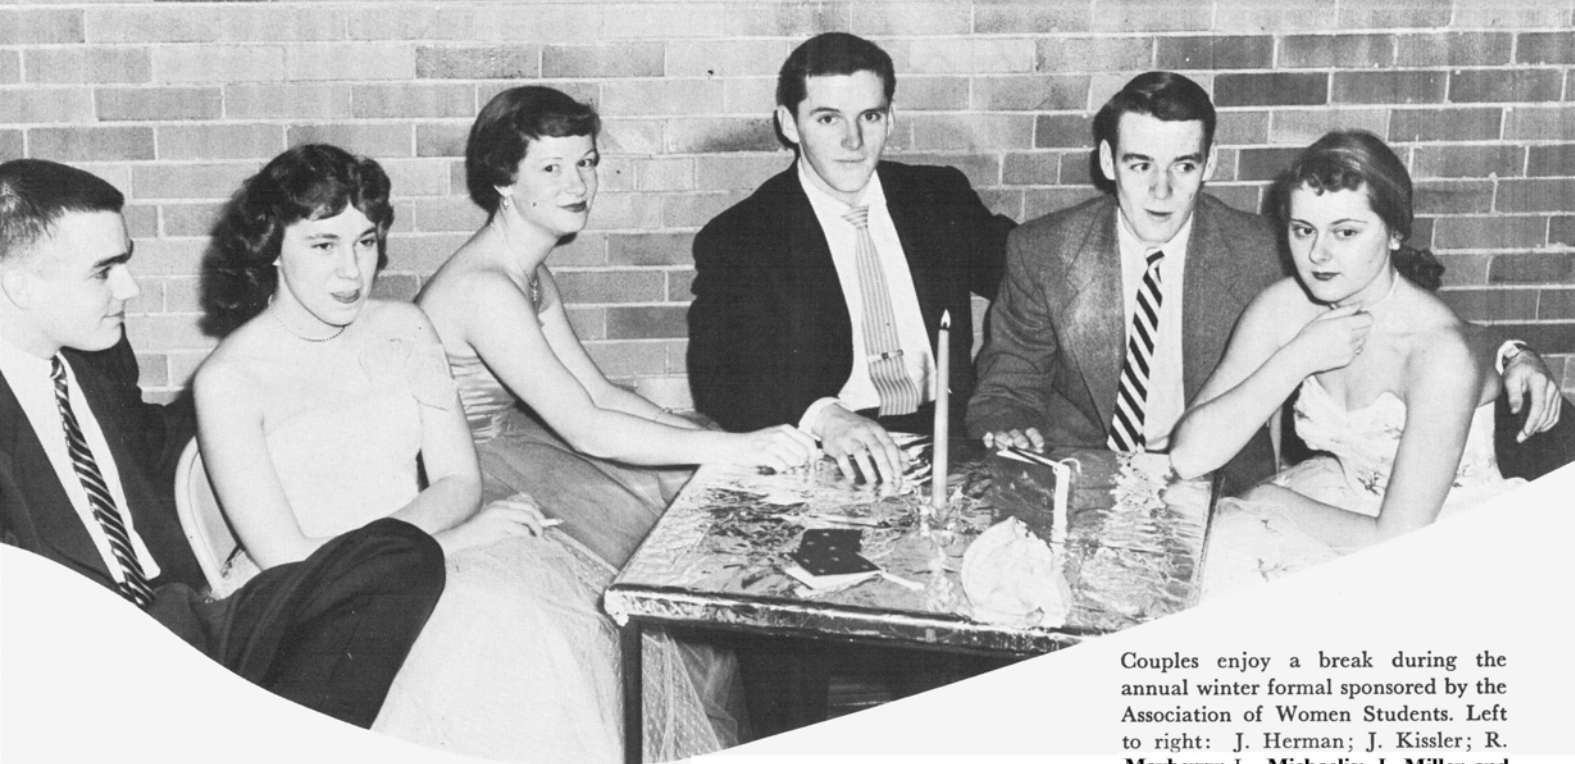

Following the afternoon football contest students, alumni and their guests retreated to various get-togethers around campus in the fraternity houses, dormitories and in Alumni Hall. The traditional Homecoming dance was held in Taft gymnasium with Eddie Kadel and his orchestra supplying the vocals. The weekend came to an end when the crowd at the dance, estimated at over 1,000, dispersed for post-homecoming celebrations.

Freshmen near success in traditional flag pole rush. Even frosh tactics of using a girl to spearhead the attack did not enable them to conquer the sophomore symbol of upperclass privilege.

TAFT COURTS YIELD TO DANCES AS YEAR MOVES ON

The social season did not give Northernites much of a chance to get a breather after Homecoming had come and gone. Week-ends of regular house dances in the various fraternities, and sorority parties in the Terrace were supplemented by a full schedule of all-campus formals and dances. The freshman class gave their dance at the end of November while the Interfraternity Ball and Choral Cabaret served as a complete fill-in in the pre-Christmas interlude in December. The Barristers' Ball, AWS Formal and Sophomore Dance were in January while the Senior Dance and Engineers' Ball came in March.

Janet Kuhner, IFC Queen, being congratulated by orchestra leader Tony Pastor. Jan Nordquist and Pauline Del Bene served as her attendants.

FORMALS HIGHLIGHT SOCIAL SEASON

Throughout the year some thirty big dances and formals are held on or off campus, most of them restricted to the various members of fraternities, sororities or particular colleges. Yet Homecoming, May Day, the A.W.S. Formal and the various class dances are open to all the campus and are usually held in Taft gym. Greeks have a full schedule of six or seven winter formals and the traditional spring formals off campus in the last quarter. The Inter-fraternity Ball and Tri-Sorority Dance get the Greeks together at least once a year while the lawyers and engineers hold sway at the Barristers' Ball and the Engineers' Ball. This does not take in the house dances and sorority dances at Terrace Hall, filling the social calendar practically every weekend throughout the year.

Intermission get-together: T. Young; G. Hughes; S. Pilkington and D. Irons.

THE SOCIAL SIDE ...

Professor Roider directs his choral choir in a rendition of " 'Twas the Night Before Christmas" to close the Cabaret.

"SANTALAND" THEME OF CHORAL CABARET

On December 4 Ohio Northern's active choir held their annual Choral Cabaret. This event, initiated by Professor Karl Roider seven years ago, is a pre-Christmas vacation event looked forward to by all on campus. The evening is shared by dancing and the presentation put on by the choir, with holiday numbers being prominent on the program. Proceeds from the Cabaret are used for the choir's eastern trip in the spring.

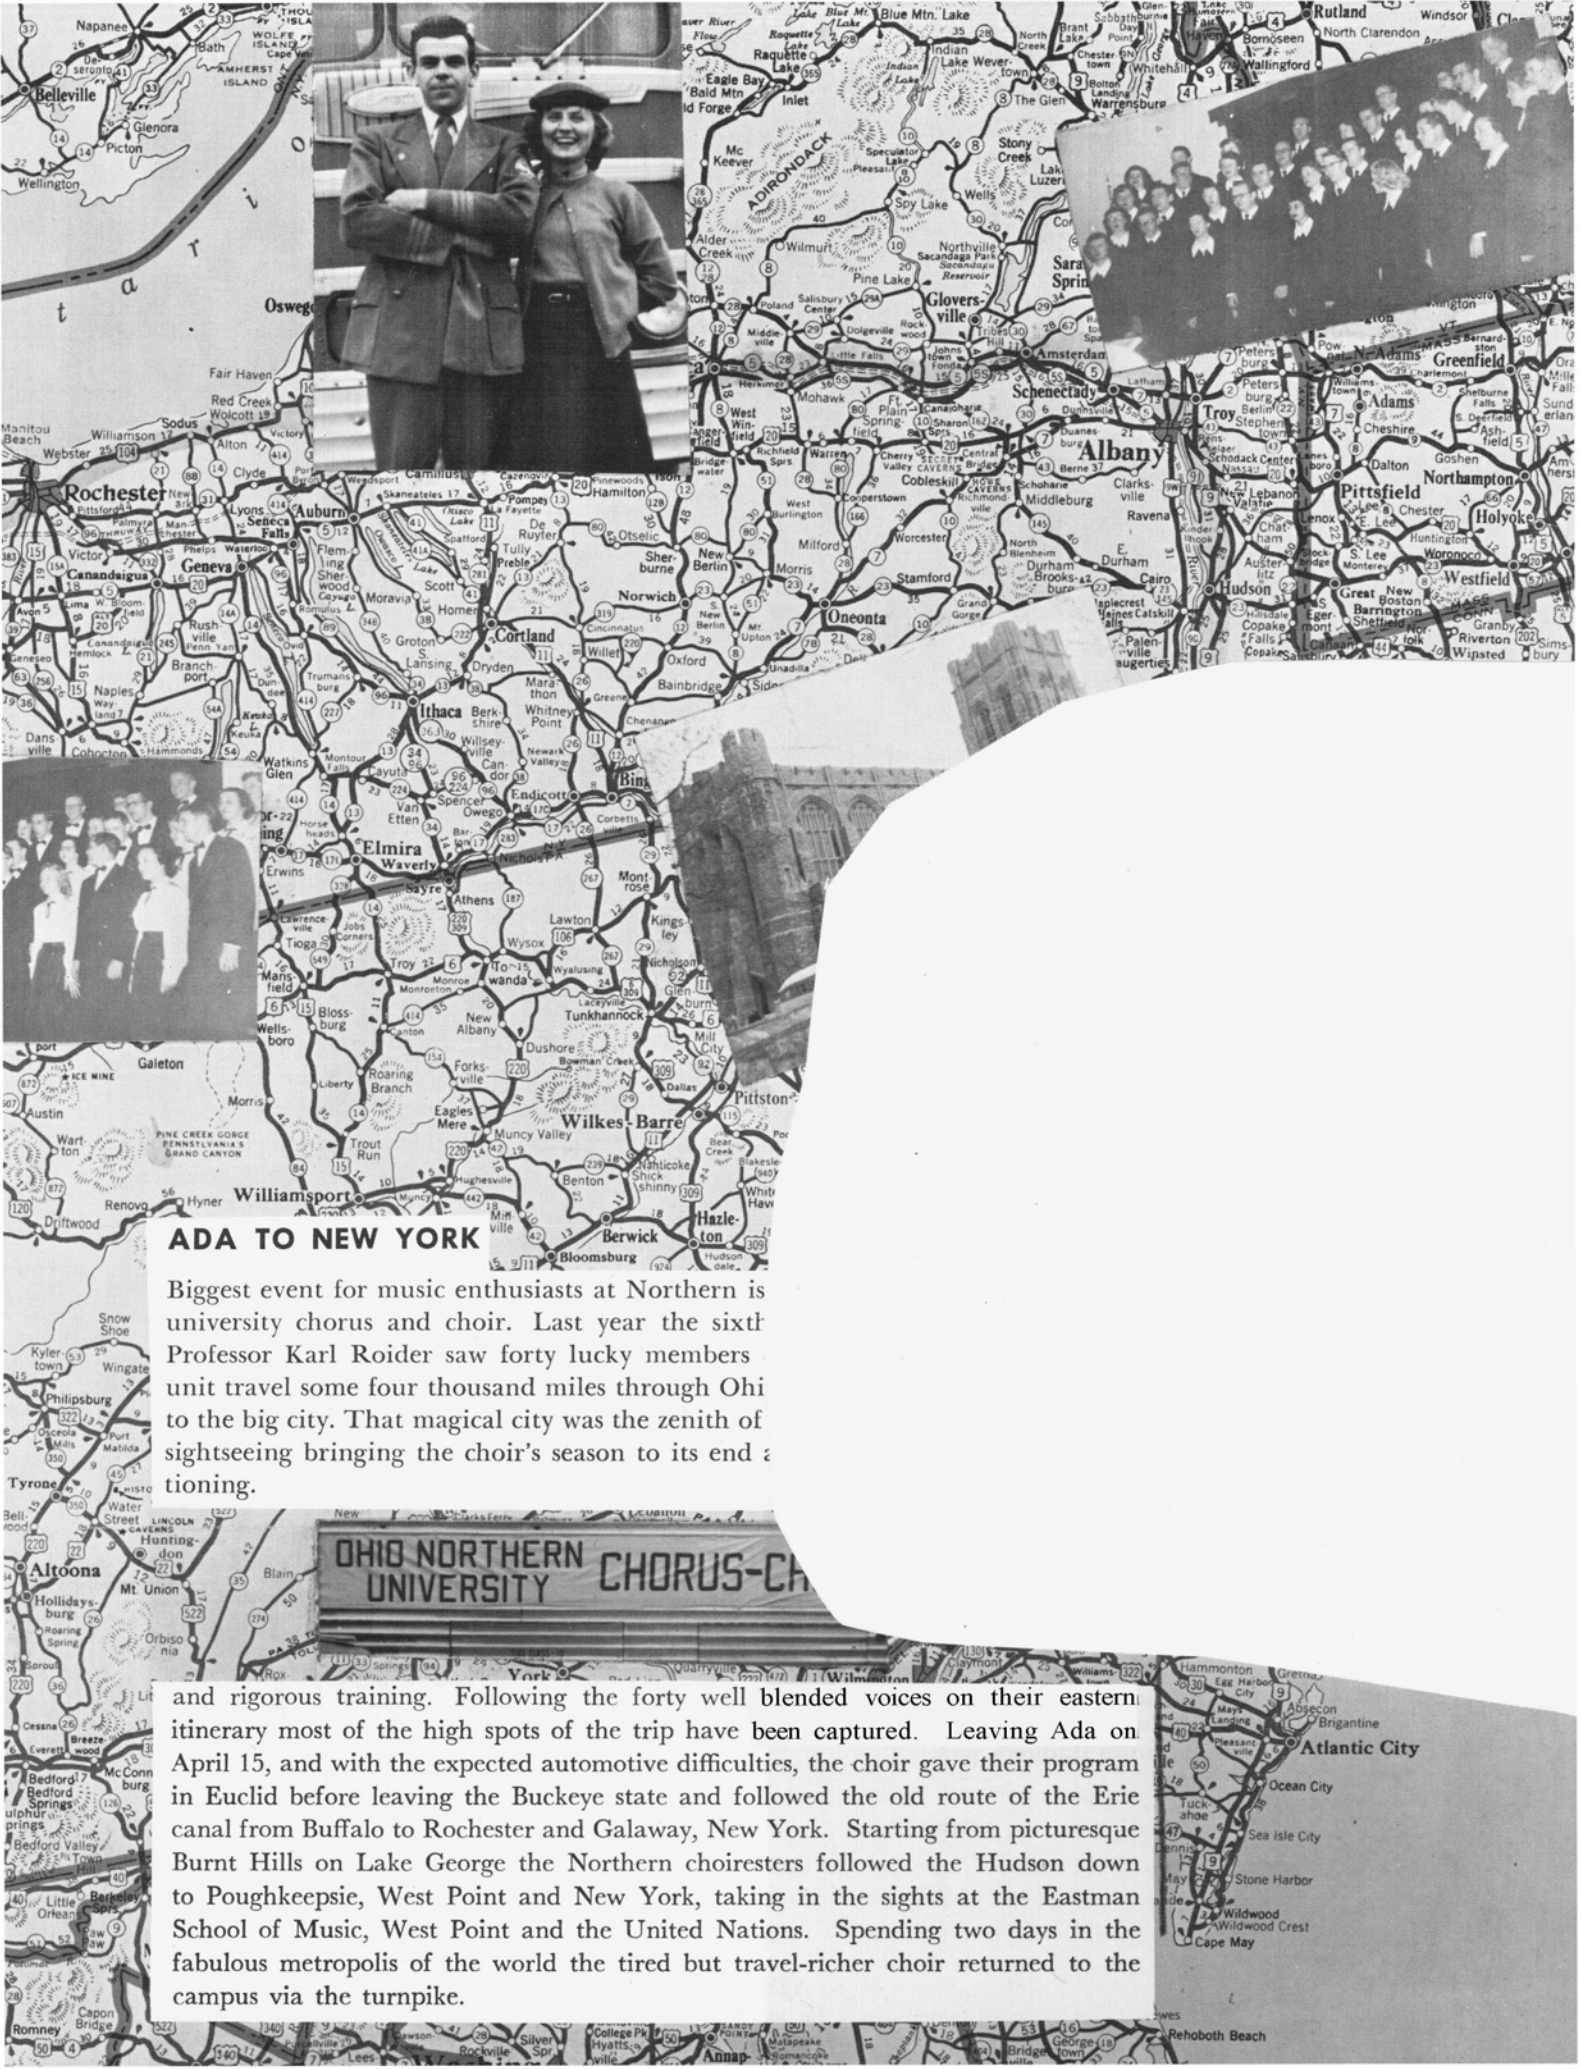

Formals and tuxedos characterized the Christmas choir.

Elaborate decorations were the background for the "Santaland" theme.

SPRING CHOIR TRIP

ADA TO NEW YORK

Biggest event for music enthusiasts at Northern is university chorus and choir. Last year the sixth Professor Karl Roeder saw forty lucky members unit travel some four thousand miles through Ohio to the big city. That magical city was the zenith of sightseeing bringing the choir's season to its end and toning.

and rigorous training. Following the forty well blended voices on their eastern itinerary most of the high spots of the trip have been captured. Leaving Ada on April 15, and with the expected automotive difficulties, the choir gave their program in Euclid before leaving the Buckeye state and followed the old route of the Erie canal from Buffalo to Rochester and Galaway, New York. Starting from picturesque Burnt Hills on Lake George the Northern choirsters followed the Hudson down to Poughkeepsie, West Point and New York, taking in the sights at the Eastman School of Music, West Point and the United Nations. Spending two days in the fabulous metropolis of the world the tired but travel-richer choir returned to the campus via the turnpike.

GREEKS SING AS SPRING IS USHERED IN

In May the annual Greek Sing was held in Lehr auditorium, in which the campus fraternities and sororities vie for respective cups awarded for the best group singing. One required number and one selection were sung by each group in the competition, this year all but two fraternities and all three sororities being entered. The Sing was inaugurated four years ago by the Student Christian Association and this year was sponsored for the first time by the campus Religious Council. Kappa Psi, with a thirty-seven man singing unit, copped the fraternity trophy while Phi Chi sorority won in the girls' competition. Assisting in the Sing was the Department of Music and Gay Hughes was student chairman for the Religious Council. Each of the fraternities sang the required number "All Through the Night" and the sororities did "Over the Rainbow."

Gay Hughes, chairman of the fourth annual Greek Sing, presents the sorority trophy to Marilyn Hitchcock, president of Phi Chi.

Following a spirited assembly of chapel skits for the various candidates on April 27, the newly-designated May royalty posed for their portrait. Reigning as monarchs of the day were King Charlie Dunn and Queen Betty Muskoff. The court, consisting of freshman, sophomore and junior attendants respectively, are Barbra Yehl, Helene Brysacz and Margo Almgren.

MAY DAY

MAY DAY, ONE OF NORTHERN'S OLDEST TRADITIONS

Continuing a tradition over four decades old on the campus, Ohio Northern students and faculty tossed their books aside for a day of festivities and events which officially heralds the coming of spring to the campus. On May 7 last year it was heralded again, and though it rained during the latter part of the afternoon it did not dampen the spirits of some 1000 students and townspeople who witnessed the annual parade and the fraternity and sorority floats.

The spring holiday was preceded by a week of campaigning for the various pretenders to the senior May monarchy and their underclass attendants. They were presented in assembly skits after which elections were held, the seniors choosing classmates Charlie Dunn and Betty Muskoff as their May King and Queen. Designated as freshman attendant was Barbra Yehl; the sophomores chose Helene Brysacz as their representative in the court and Margo Almgren was elected by the juniors.

Spectators to the May Day parade saw one of the most colorful displays of fraternity and sorority floats in many years. The winner in the sorority competition was Theta Phi Delta, with a float depicting a scene from the Old Mill Stream, in Findlay. Dressed as an oldtime couple riding on the float are Joyce Acheson and Ruth Conklin. Upper right, the fraternity winners, Phi Mu Delta, had a float showing the Wright brothers' first flying machine.

FORMALITIES AND FROLIC...

Cutting the tape in front of Lehr walk to officially start the day of frolicking, the Queen together with the King and court carry on a time-honored tradition.

May Day began officially at 9:00 Thursday morning when Dean Warren Hickman tolled the bells in Hill tower and the King and Queen with the court cut the ribbon across Lehr walk. The clean-up of the campus then proceeded with the members of each college renovating their respective buildings for the holiday. The college of pharmacy received a plaque for their efforts in this activity.

By 2:00 that afternoon a large crowd collected along Main street in anticipation of the May Day parade. Intramural baseball games between the various colleges proceeded in the afternoon despite the absence of a hoped-for clear sky.

Following post-campaigning celebrations, Queen Betty and her court take time out for a feminine portrait of May royalty.

Besides the formalities of the royal breakfast and the cutting of the tape, an all-campus clean-up characterized the May celebration. Activity around the various college buildings and surroundings were in evidence, as were last-minute efforts upon the part of the fraternity and sorority members to prepare their Boats for the afternoon parade.

The day began with breakfast for the entourage in the College Inn. Getting ready to commence with the process of eating are Helane Bryasz, Barbera Yehl, Queen Betty and King Charlie and Margo Almgren.

AND WITH MAY CAME THE LAST MONTH

May Day signified not only the coming of spring to the Northern campus but also the start of the "last fling" in which scholastic obligations were coming into the final phase but were also competing with social and athletic activity at its prime. The month was filled with fraternity functions and formals, senior banquets and student picnics and get-togethers. The call of the "north" again was heard and the doorways at No. 407 South Union were filled to capacity at quitting time. . . and then the books were taken up again and became the order of the day, after which . . . for another year, and for the class of '54, it was all over. . .

The Underclasses

FROSH MAKE THEIR APPEARANCE
WHILE UPPERCLASSMEN PLAY THE ROLE.

Part of the college experience is the transition from one class to another until the sometimes over-sought status of senior is achieved. The underclasses, together with the freshmen and the second and third formers, constitute that part of Ohio Northern's student body yet climbing the academic mountain. These, then, are the seniors of '55, of '56 and of '57.

Top: The frosh carry on the tradition in a vain attempt to scale the sophomore-greased flagpole the afternoon preceding Homecoming. Center: Upperclass barristers show little apparent sympathy towards excuses of freshman violators in fall student court. Bottom: In the final round of the campaigning for homecoming queen, sorority sisters enlist their vocal talents.

The Juniors

Feeling relaxed after passing into junior standing, the class of prospective fifty-fivers elected their officers and again sat back and relaxed. Juniors chose Mart Mannik of Ada as their president, who took over from his brother John, who had led the class last year. His officers included Steve Michaelis as vice president, Barbara Bowers as

At the beginning of the year the sophomores were the official vigilante committee organized to enforce freshman customs and traditions. Sophomore class officers acted as the nominal heads of this law enforcing arm of the Student Council freshman violations court. Top man in the sophomore class is Tom Young of Kent. His right hand woman in the vice presidency is Barb Yehl, while Ralph Smith is secretary and Tom Fitzgibbon, treasurer. Wednesday and Friday socials kept a good part of the class busy throughout the year, though no class functions as such came off.

Freshman class prexy Don Looney gives the lowdown on campus doings to fellow officers Joe Smallwood and Ann Larocco. Vice President Tracy Love was absent when the picture was taken.

The Freshmen

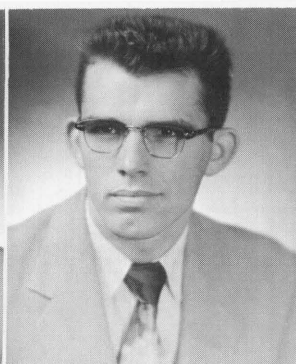

After having survived the "rugged" month of what the upperclassmen like to call freshman hazing, the new Northern cubs swung into action both academically and socially. At the beginning of the year they chose their officers, Donald Looney of Westfield, N. J. holding the top executive post. Tracy Love of Geneva was named to the vice presidential spot, Ann Larocco of Campbell the secretarial slot and Joe Smallwood of Waynesfield the treasurer. In November the frosh sponsored a dance in Taft gym and soon fell into regular campus routine.

Advertisements

The editorial and business staff of the 1954 Northern would like to express their sincere thanks for the cooperation it received from students, faculty and staff of Ohio Northern University, and to the advertisers whose names are in the following pages, without whose assistance production of the yearbook would have been impossible.

Also, the staff wishes to convey their especial thanks to the following people directly concerned with the production of the Northern, whose invaluable aid has helped to make it what we hope will be a success: Mr. James McGurk and Miss Jewell Gates of William J. Keller, Inc., specifically, and to their art and make-up departments generally; Mr. Merl Eiserling of the Crafto Cover Company, who are responsible for our exceptional cover, and Mr. Andrew Albright and Mr. LeRoy Solian of Vantine Studios, who did our fine individual photography work.

Long-standing customers, both yearbook staffs and advisors, are enthusiastic over the Keller yearbook program because experience has proved that application of its various services has made the job pleasant, easy, and gratifying.

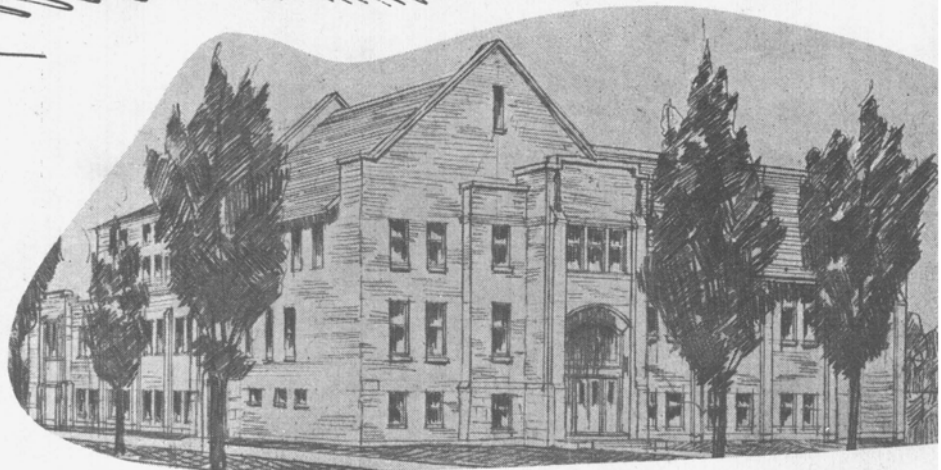

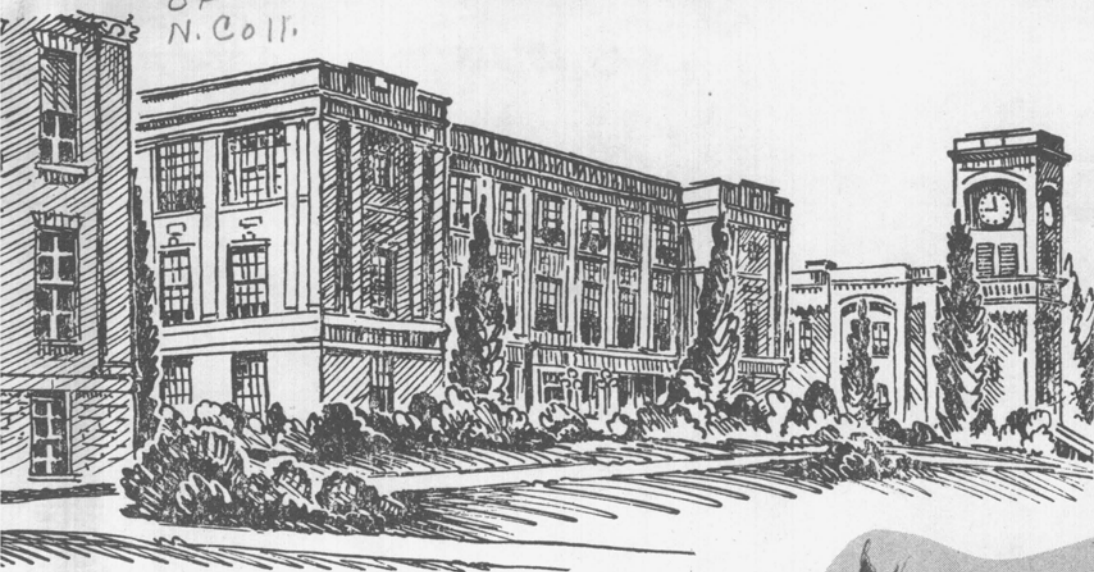

Our intimate method of yearbook counsel and assistance, based upon continual service, is governed by a sincere desire to maintain the reputation that every Keller book is distinctive and custom-built. Many, as a result, win top critical awards.
